16 and insert: registration process and community and public

17 notification provisions. As part of determining the 18 effectiveness os the registration process, the OPPAGA shall

19 examine the current practices of: the Department of 20 Corrections, county probation offices, clerk of courts, court

21 administrators, county jails and booking facilities,

22 Department of Children and Family Services, judges, state

23 attorneys offices, Department of Highway Safety and Motor

24 Vehicles, Department of Law Enforcement, and local law

25 enforcement agencies as they relate to: sharing of offender

26 information regarding registered sexual predators and sexual

27 offenders for purposes of fulfilling the requirements set

28 fourth in the registration laws; ensuring the most accurate,

29 current and comprehensive information is provided in a timely

30 manner to the registry; ensuring the effective supervision and

31 subsequent monitoring of sexual predators and offenders; and

1   ensuring informed decisions are made at each point of the

2   criminal justice and registration process. In addition to

3   determining the effectiveness of the registration process, the 4   report shall focus on the question of whether the notification

5   provisions in statute are sufficient to apprise communities of 6   the presence of sexual predators and sexual offenders. The

7   report shall examine how local law enforcement agencies

8   collect and disseminate information in an effort to notify the 9   public and communities of the presence of sexual predators and 10 offenders. If the report finds deficiencies in the 11 registration process,
