1 risk factors that could potentially make the offender more
2 likely to pose a danger to others:

- 3       1. Previous conviction for domestic violence;
- 4       2. History of substance abuse;
- 5       3. Unemployment or substantial financial difficulties;
- 6       4. Previous conviction for violence or sex acts

9       (2) Recognizing that a sex offender having an 10 extensive criminal history and multiple risk factors may pose 11 a serious threat to the community, the department shall 12 consider the cumulative impact of these risk factors and, if 13 necessary, place an offender under a high level of supervision
14 until the situation stabilizes and the department no longer 15 believes that the offender poses a threat to others. In 16 providing such supervision, the department shall increase the 17 number of office and home visits conducted by the correctional 18 probation officer; expand the number of and type of 19 employment, family, community, and neighborhood contacts by 20 the correctional probation officer; increase voluntary 21 referrals to available community mental health facilities and 22 community assistance programs; develop emergency communication 23 plans for law enforcement agencies and the court in order to 24 quickly detain the offender in response to a violation; and 25 prioritize departmental resources in order to more closely
26 monitor the offender's activities in an effort to prevent 27 escalating criminal behavior.

28       (3) To facilitate the information available to the 29 court at first appearance hearings and at all subsequent 30 hearings for these high-risk sex offenders, the department
31 shall, no later than March 1, 2006, post on the Internet a
