16	Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
18	Section 1. Effective October 1, 2005, paragraph (b) of
19	subsection (1) of section 61.13, Florida Statutes, is amended
20	to read:
21	61.13 Custody and support of children; visitation
22	rights; power of court in making orders
23	(1)
24	(b) Each order for support shall contain a provision
25	for health care coverage for the minor child when the coverage
26	is reasonably available. Coverage is reasonably available if
27	either the obligor or obligee has access at a reasonable rate
28	to a group health plan. The court may require the obligor
29	either to provide health care coverage or to reimburse the
30	obligee for the cost of health care coverage for the minor
31	child when coverage is provided by the obligee. In either

1 event, the court shall apportion the cost of coverage, and any 2 noncovered medical, dental, and prescription medication expenses of the child, to both parties by adding the cost to 3 the basic obligation determined pursuant to s. 61.30(6). The 4 court may order that payment of uncovered medical, dental, and 5 6 prescription medication expenses of the minor child be made 7 directly to the obligee on a percentage basis. 8 1. In a non-Title IV-D case, a copy of the court order 9 for health care coverage shall be served on the obligor's union or employer by the obligee when the following conditions 10 11 are met: 12 The obligor fails to provide written proof to the a. 13 obligee within 30 days after receiving effective notice of the court order $_{\tau}$ that the health care coverage has been obtained 14 or that application for coverage has been made; 15 b. The obligee serves written notice of intent to 16 17 enforce an order for health care coverage on the obligor by 18 mail at the obligor's last known address; and c. The obligor fails within 15 days after the mailing 19 of the notice to provide written proof to the obligee that the 20 21 health care coverage existed as of the date of mailing. 22 2.a. A support order enforced under Title IV-D of the 23 Social Security Act which requires that the obligor provide health care coverage is enforceable by the department through 2.4 the use of the national medical support notice, and an 25 amendment to the support order is not required. The department 26 27 shall transfer the national medical support notice to the 2.8 obligor's union or employer. The department shall notify the 29 obligor in writing that the notice has been sent to the obligor's union or employer, and the written notification must 30 include the obligor's rights and duties under the national 31

1 medical support notice. The obligor may contest the 2 withholding required by the national medical support notice based on a mistake of fact. To contest the withholding, the 3 obligor must file a written notice of contest with the 4 department within 15 business days after the date the obligor 5 6 receives written notification of the national medical support 7 notice from the department. Filing with the department is 8 complete when the notice is received by the person designated by the department in the written notification. The notice of 9 contest must be in the form prescribed by the department. Upon 10 the timely filing of a notice of contest, the department 11 12 shall, within 5 business days, schedule an informal conference 13 with the obligor to discuss the obligor's factual dispute. If the informal conference resolves the dispute to the obligor's 14 satisfaction or if the obligor fails to attend the informal 15 conference, the notice of contest is deemed withdrawn. If the 16 17 informal conference does not resolve the dispute, the obligor 18 may request an administrative hearing under chapter 120 within 5 business days after the termination of the informal 19 conference, in a form and manner prescribed by the department. 20 21 However, the filing of a notice of contest by the obligor does 22 not delay the withholding of premium payments by the union, 23 employer, or health plan administrator. The union, employer, or health plan administrator must implement the withholding as 2.4 directed by the national medical support notice unless 25 26 notified by the department that the national medical support 27 notice is terminated. 2.8 b. In a Title IV-D case, the department shall notify 29 an obligor's union or employer if the obligation to provide health care coverage through that union or employer is 30

31 terminated.

1 3. In a non-Title IV-D case, upon receipt of the order 2 pursuant to subparagraph 1., or upon application of the obligor pursuant to the order, the union or employer shall 3 enroll the minor child as a beneficiary in the group health 4 plan regardless of any restrictions on the enrollment period 5 6 and withhold any required premium from the obligor's income. 7 If more than one plan is offered by the union or employer, the 8 child shall be enrolled in the group health plan in which the 9 obligor is enrolled. 10 4.a. Upon receipt of the national medical support notice under subparagraph 2. in a Title IV-D case, the union 11 12 or employer shall transfer the notice to the appropriate group 13 health plan administrator within 20 business days after the date on the notice. The plan administrator must enroll the 14 child as a beneficiary in the group health plan regardless of 15 any restrictions on the enrollment period, and the union or 16 17 employer must withhold any required premium from the obligor's income upon notification by the plan administrator that the 18 child is enrolled. The child shall be enrolled in the group 19 health plan in which the obligor is enrolled. If the group 20 21 health plan in which the obligor is enrolled is not available 22 where the child resides or if the obligor is not enrolled in 23 group coverage, the child shall be enrolled in the lowest cost group health plan that is available where the child resides. 2.4 b. If health care coverage or the obligor's employment 25 is terminated in a Title IV-D case, the union or employer that 26 27 is withholding premiums for health care coverage under a 2.8 national medical support notice must notify the department 29 within 20 days after the termination and provide the obligor's last known address and the name and address of the obligor's 30 new employer, if known. 31

1 5.a. The amount withheld by a union or employer in 2 compliance with a support order may not exceed the amount allowed under s. 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act, 3 15 U.S.C. s. 1673(b), as amended. The union or employer shall 4 withhold the maximum allowed by the Consumer Credit Protection 5 б Act in the following order: 7 (I) Current support, as ordered. 8 (II) Premium payments for health care coverage, as ordered. 9 10 (III) Past due support, as ordered. (IV) Other medical support or coverage, as ordered. 11 12 b. If the combined amount to be withheld for current 13 support plus the premium payment for health care coverage exceed the amount allowed under the Consumer Credit Protection 14 Act, and the health care coverage cannot be obtained unless 15 16 the full amount of the premium is paid, the union or employer 17 may not withhold the premium payment. However, the union or 18 employer shall withhold the maximum allowed in the following order: 19 20 (I) Current support, as ordered. 21 (II) Past due support, as ordered. 22 (III) Other medical support or coverage, as ordered. 23 An employer, union, or plan administrator who does not comply with the requirements of sub-subparagraph 4.a. is 2.4 subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $250 for the first 25 26 violation and $500 for subsequent violations, plus attorney's fees and costs. The department may file a petition in circuit 27 2.8 court to enforce the requirements of this subparagraph. 29 7.6. The Department of Revenue may adopt rules to 30 administer the child support enforcement provisions of this section which affect Title IV-D cases. 31

Section 2. Effective July 1, 2006, subsections (1) and 1 2 (2) of section 61.1354, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 3 61.1354 Sharing of information between consumer reporting agencies and the IV-D agency.--4 5 (1) Upon receipt of a request from a consumer 6 reporting agency as defined in s. 603(f) of the Fair Credit 7 Reporting Act, the IV-D agency or the depository in non-Title-IV-D cases shall make available information relating 8 to the amount of current and overdue support owed by an 9 obligor. The IV-D agency or the depository in non-Title-IV-D 10 cases shall give the obligor written notice, at least 15 days 11 12 prior to the release of information, of the IV-D agency's or 13 depository's authority to release information to consumer reporting agencies relating to the amount of current and 14 overdue support owed by the obligor. The obligor shall be 15 informed of his or her right to request a hearing with the 16 17 IV-D agency or the court in non-Title-IV-D cases to contest 18 the accuracy of the information. 19 (2) The IV-D agency shall report periodically to appropriate consumer reporting agencies, as identified by the 20 21 IV-D agency, the name and social security number of any 22 delinquent obligor, and the amount of overdue support owed by 23 the obligor, and the amount of current support owed by the obligor when the overdue support is paid. The IV-D agency, or 2.4 its designee, shall provide the obligor with written notice, 25 at least 15 days prior to the initial release of information, 26 27 of the IV-D agency's authority to release the information 2.8 periodically to the consumer reporting agencies. The notice 29 shall state the amount of overdue support owed and the amount of current support owed when the overdue support is paid and 30 shall inform the obligor of the right to request a hearing 31 7

1 with the IV-D agency within 15 days after receipt of the notice to contest the accuracy of the information. After the 2 initial notice is given, no further notice or opportunity for 3 a hearing need be given when updated information concerning 4 5 the same obligor is periodically released to the consumer 6 reporting agencies. 7 Section 3. Effective December 1, 2005, paragraph (a) 8 of subsection (8) of section 61.14, Florida Statutes, is 9 amended to read: 10 61.14 Enforcement and modification of support, maintenance, or alimony agreements or orders .--11 12 (8)(a) When an employee and employer reach an agreement for a lump-sum settlement under s. 440.20(11), no 13 proceeds of the settlement shall be disbursed to the employee, 14 nor shall any attorney's fees be disbursed, until after a 15 judge of compensation claims reviews the proposed disbursement 16 17 and enters an order finding the settlement provides for 18 appropriate recovery of any support arrearage. The employee, or the employee's attorney if the employee is represented, 19 shall submit a written statement from the department as to 20 21 whether the employee owes unpaid support and, if so, the amount owed. In addition, the judge of compensation claims may 22 23 require the employee to submit a similar statement from a local depository established under s. 61.181. The sworn 2.4 statement of the employee that all existing support 25 obligations have been disclosed is also required. If the judge 26 27 finds the proposed allocation of support recovery 2.8 insufficient, the parties may amend the allocation of support recovery within the settlement agreement to make the 29 allocation of proceeds sufficient. 1	further order from the tribunal that entered the support
2	order. As used in this subsection, the term "tribunal" means a
3	circuit court or the department.
4	(a) A determination by the department must be based on
5	one or more of the following factors:
б	1. Public-assistance records that show a person other
7	than the obligee or obligor is receiving public assistance for
8	the child;
9	2. A statement by the obligee that the child resides
10	with a person other than the obligee or obligor;
11	3. A sworn statement or written declaration signed
12	under penalty of perjury by a person who has personal
13	knowledge that the child resides with a person other than the
14	obligee or obligor;
15	4. Government records that show the obligee is
16	incarcerated;
17	5. Evidence that the obligee has left the community
18	where the child resides; or
19	6. Other credible information that indicates that the 20	child resides with a person other than the obligee or obligor.
21	(b) The department, when it determines that a child
22	resides with a person other than the obligee or obligor, shall
23	notify the obligee, the obligor, and if known, the person with
24	whom the child resides by regular mail. The notice must state:
25	1. The facts upon which the determination is based;
26	2. The name and address of the person with whom the
27	child resides, if known, unless disclosure is prohibited under
28	s. 409.2579(3) or (4) or the child is in foster care;
29	3. That the department will not disburse current
30	support payments for the child without a further order from
31	the tribunal that entered the support order;

1	4. If the support order was entered by a circuit
2	court:
3	a. That the department will file a motion and proposed
4	order with the court requesting the court to order that the
5	obligor's current support payments be disbursed to the person
б	with whom the child resides, to determine arrearages, and to
7	order repayment of any arrearages;
8	b. That the obligee, the obligor, and the person with
9	whom the child resides may file an objection to the proposed
10	order or a motion to compel disbursement; and
11	c. That the obligee, the obligor, and the person with
12	whom the child resides will be mailed a copy of the 13	department's motion and notice of any hearing.
14	5. If the support order was entered by the department:
15	a. That the department will disburse the current
16	support payments to the person with whom the child resides, if
17	known, determine arrearages, and order repayment of
18	arrearages;
19	b. The effective date of the intended action, the
20	amount of arrearages, and the amount ordered for periodic
21	repayment of arrearages;
22	c. That the obligee, the obligor, and the person with
23	whom the child resides may contest the intended action by
24	filing with the department a petition for an administrative
25	hearing within 30 days after the date the notice was mailed.
26	d. That if a timely petition for an administrative 27	hearing is filed, the parties will be given advance notice of 28	the date, time, and place of the hearing; and
29	e. That if the notice of intended action is not timely
30	contested, the department will enter a final order based on
31	information in the notice.

1	(c) The tribunal that entered the support order shall
2	determine whether support payments not disbursed by the
3	department and current support must be paid to the obligee,
4	paid to the person with whom the child resides, or refunded to 5	the obligor. The person with whom the child resides is deemed б	a party to the proceedings. The tribunal is not required to 7	hold a hearing unless a party files a timely objection to the 8	proposed order or a timely petition for an administrative
9	hearing. Any hearing held by the department shall be conducted
10	by the Division of Administrative Hearings and the
11	administrative law judge shall enter a final order. If a
12	hearing is not required, the tribunal shall enter an order
13	within 30 days after the department's motion is filed or
14	notice of intended action is mailed. If a timely objection or 15	petition for administrative hearing is filed, a hearing shall
16	be conducted and an order entered within 30 days after the
17	objection or petition is filed.
18	(d) If the tribunal finds by a preponderance of the 19	evidence that the child does not reside with the obligee, the
20	tribunal shall enter an order that redirects the obligor's
21	current support payments to the person with whom the child
22	resides, determine arrearages owed to the obligee and the
23	person with whom the child resides, and order repayment of
24	arrearages. The tribunal need not recompute the obligor's
25	support obligation under the child-support guidelines. If the
26	person with whom the child resides is unknown and the obligor
27	owes no arrearages or costs, the tribunal shall enter an order
28	refunding the payments not disbursed by the department to the
29	obligor. If the child resides with the obligor, the person
30	with whom the child resides is unknown, or the child's place
