Senator Saunders moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 1, between lines 25 and 26,

insert:

Section 2. Paragraph (g) of subsection (6) of section 193.501, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

193.501 Assessment of lands subject to a conservation easement, environmentally endangered lands, or lands used for outdoor recreational or park purposes when land development rights have been conveyed or conservation restrictions have been covenanted.--

(6) The following terms whenever used as referred to in this section have the following meanings unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context:

(g) "Outdoor recreational or park purposes" includes, but is not necessarily limited to, boating, golfing, camping, swimming, horseback riding, and archaeological, scenic, or scientific sites and applies only to land which is open to the general public. As applied to a golf course, the term "open to

1 the general public" means that the golf course is open for the
 2 property's normal use to any person who pays a daily access
 3 fee so long as such fee does not exceed the lowest fee charged
 4 to any person for such access.
