30 investment to statutory limits.

31

1           Section 23. Section 657.043, Florida Statutes, is
2 amended to read:

3           657.043 Reserves.--

4           (1) ALLOWANCE FOR LOAN LOSSES ACCOUNT.--The credit
5 union shall maintain an account for loan and lease losses. The 6 amount in the account should be consistent with applicable
7 United States generally accepted accounting principles and 8 industry guidance provided by regulatory agencies or as 9 required by the office. The account must be provided for 10 before paying a dividend. TRANSFERS TO REGULAR

11 RESERVE. Immediately before paying each dividend, the total
12 of all income for the period shall be determined. From this 13 amount, there shall be set aside sums as a regular reserve in 14 accordance with the following schedule:

15           ~~(a) A credit union shall set aside:~~

16           1. ~~Five percent of the total of all income for the~~
17 ~~period, until the regular reserve equals 6 percent of the risk~~
18 ~~assets, then,~~

19           2. ~~Two percent of the total of all income for the~~
20 ~~period, until the regular reserve equals 8 percent of the risk~~
21 ~~assets.~~

22           ~~(b) Whenever the ratio of regular reserves to risk~~
23 ~~assets falls below the stated percent, it shall be replenished~~
24 ~~by regular contributions as provided in paragraph (a).~~

25           ~~(c) The office may decrease the reserve requirements~~
26 ~~set forth in this subsection when in its opinion such a~~
27 ~~decrease is necessary to preserve the fiscal soundness of the~~ 28 ~~credit union.~~

29           ~~(2) ALLOWANCE FOR LOAN LOSSES ACCOUNT. The credit~~
30 ~~union shall maintain an account for loan losses. The amount~~
31 ~~in the account must equal the board's estimate of losses in~~

1 ~~the loan portfolio and be consistent with the rules of the~~
2 ~~commission. The account must be provided for, before paying a~~
3 ~~dividend, in the manner provided by rule. This account~~
4 ~~constitutes part of the regular reserve for the purpose of~~
5 ~~determining the ratio of regular reserves to risk assets.~~

6 (2)(3) REGULAR RESERVE.--The regular reserve shall 7 belong to the credit union and shall be used to meet losses.
8 ~~In the event of a decrease, the office may require additional~~ 9 ~~transfers to the regular reserve above the amount required by~~ 10 ~~subsection (1) until the decrease has been restored. The~~ 11 regular reserve may not be decreased without the prior written 12 approval of the office or as provided by rule of the 13 commission.

14 ~~(4) RISK ASSETS DEFINED. The following assets shall~~ 15 ~~be considered risk assets:~~

16 ~~(a) All loans, except:~~

18 ~~deposits in the lending credit union, equal to and maintained~~
19 ~~to at least the amount of the loan outstanding.~~

20 ~~2. Loans which are purchased from liquidating credit~~
21 ~~unions and guaranteed by the corporation or insured by the~~
22 ~~National Credit Union Administration or other insuring~~
23 ~~agencies.~~

24 ~~3. Investments in or loans to the corporation.~~

25 ~~(b) All investments that have remaining maturities~~
26 ~~greater than 3 years, unless a specific reserve has been~~
27 ~~established to mark the investment to current market value.~~

28 ~~(c) Uninsured or nonguaranteed deposits and shares in~~ 29 ~~financial depository institutions, except deposits in the~~ 30 ~~Federal Reserve Bank, the Federal Home Loan Bank, the~~

31

1 ~~Southeast Corporate Federal Credit Union, and any other~~
2 ~~corporate credit union.~~

3 ~~(d) All investments in commercial paper and bonds.~~

4 ~~(e) All investments in banker's acceptances.~~

5 ~~(f) All investments in federal funds.~~

6 ~~(g) All investments that are authorized pursuant to~~ 7 ~~subsection (6) or subsection (7).~~

8 ~~(h) Fixed assets greater than the statutory limit~~
9 ~~imposed by this chapter, unless a specific reserve has been~~ 10 ~~established for the excess.~~

11 ~~(3)(5)~~ ALLOWANCE FOR INVESTMENT LOSSES.--The credit
12 union may maintain a contra asset account to provide an 13 allowance for investment losses, which will not be included in 14 the determination of equity. The account must be maintained
15 consistent with the rules of the commission.

16 ~~(4)(6)~~ SPECIAL RESERVES.--In addition to such regular 17 reserve, special reserves shall be established:

18 (a) To protect members against losses resulting from 19 credit extended or from risk assets when required by rule, or 20 when found by the office, in any special case, to be necessary
21 for that purpose; or

22 (b) As authorized by the board of directors.

23 ~~(5)~~ BORROWING MONEY.--A credit union may borrow money
24 and issue evidences of indebtedness for a loan or loans in the 25 usual course of its business and secure such obligations by 26 mortgage or pledge of any of its assets. Aggregate borrowings
27 may not exceed 50 percent of the capital that is not impaired
28 by losses of the credit union. However, this percentage
29 limitation does not apply to loans from the National Credit
30 Union Administration.

1           ~~(7) RESERVE FOR CONTINGENCIES. The board of directors~~
2 ~~may, after the regular reserve required by this section and~~
3 ~~rules of the commission has been set aside, transfer a portion~~
4 ~~of undivided earnings to an auxiliary reserve account to~~ 5 ~~provide for additional possible losses and expenses.~~

6           ~~(8) RESERVES. The ratio of equity to total assets for~~ 7 ~~each credit union must be maintained at not less than 5~~
8 ~~percent. At the end of the calendar quarter when this ratio~~
9 ~~is determined to be less than 5 percent, the credit union~~
10 ~~shall, within 60 days thereafter, prepare and file with the~~ 11 ~~office for approval a plan to achieve the minimum ratio within~~ 12 ~~4 years, or such longer period of time approved by the office.~~
13 ~~Once achieved, each credit union must maintain a ratio of~~ 14 ~~equity to total assets of not less than 5 percent, unless~~ 15 ~~otherwise authorized by the office. The commission, by rule,~~
16 ~~shall prescribe the information, types of restrictions and~~
17 ~~limitations on operations, reporting requirements, and other~~
18 ~~criteria that are required to be included in an acceptable~~
19 ~~plan. An acceptable plan must recognize the unique~~
20 ~~characteristics and risk differences for the individual credit~~
21 ~~union.~~

22           ~~(9) GUARANTY ASSISTANCE AGREEMENT. The amount of any~~ 23 ~~liability arising out of a guaranty assistance agreement with~~ 24 ~~the corporation or National Credit Union Administration must~~ 25 ~~be maintained as a reserve and be included in the~~ 26 ~~determination of undivided earnings of the credit union.~~

27           Section 24. Section 657.062, Florida Statutes, is
28 amended to read:

29           657.062 Conservatorship Assumption of control by 30 ~~guarantor or insurer.--~~
31

1           (1) The office may appoint ~~direct the corporation or~~
2 the National Credit Union Administration as conservator over a
3 credit union to take possession and, whichever is applicable,
4 ~~to assume~~ control of the property, assets, and business of its 5 member credit union and to operate it subject to the 6 directions of the office whenever:

7           (a) ~~Whenever~~ The office finds that the credit union:

8           1. Is engaging or has engaged in an unsafe or unsound
9 practice;

10           2. Is violating or has violated any provision of this 11 chapter; or

12           3. Is violating or has violated any commission rule, 13 office order, or written agreement entered into with the 14 office,

15
16 in such a manner that the credit union is threatened with 17 imminent insolvency.

18           (b) ~~Whenever~~ A majority of the members of the board of 19 directors of the credit union have been removed by the office
20 or the National Credit Union Administration or shall have 21 resigned.

22           (c) The credit union is significantly undercapitalized
23 and has no reasonable prospect of becoming adequately
24 capitalized. The commission may define by rule criteria for 25 determining if a credit union is undercapitalized or 26 adequately capitalized. In defining such criteria, the
27 commission shall consider the definitions contained in s. 216,
28 the Federal Credit Union Act, codified at 12 U.S.C. 1790d.

29           (2) Except when prohibited by federal or state law, in 30 the event of conservatorship ~~assumption of control~~, the 31 conservator ~~guarantor or insurer~~ may appoint ~~elect~~ the board

1 of directors and the operating committees and may, without
2 penalty or liability, prepay any deposit accounts; terminate
3 any contracts or agreements with employees, independent
4 contractors, or consultants; terminate any contract or
5 agreement with any person to provide goods, products, or
6 services if the performance of such contract would adversely
7 affect the safety or soundness of the credit unions ~~or if such~~ 8 ~~contract was entered into in violation of s. 657.0315(1); and~~ 9 terminate or assign any lease for property. The authority of 10 the conservator ~~guarantor or insurer~~ to continue operation of 11 a credit union shall continue for a period not to exceed 180
12 days, unless extended by the office for an additional period
13 or periods, not to exceed 180 days each, at the request of the 14 conservator ~~guarantor or insurer~~, or unless involuntary
15 liquidation proceedings have been initiated by the office. In 16 the event that the conservator ~~guarantor or insurer~~ does
17 assume control pursuant to the direction of the office, a
18 meeting of the credit union shall be called within 180 days,
19 or within the period of extension as approved by the office,
20 for the specific purpose of electing a new board of directors,
21 who shall take office when the conservator ~~guarantor or~~ 22 ~~insurer~~ surrenders control, or considering such other
23 recommendations as the conservator ~~guarantor or insurer~~ and 24 the office ~~may~~ make.

25 Section 25. Subsections (1), (2), and (3) of section
26 657.063, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

27 657.063 Involuntary liquidation.--

28 (1) If the office finds that any credit union is 29 ~~bankrupt or insolvent~~ or imminently insolvent; ~~or is~~ 30 transacting its business in an unsound, unsafe, or 31 unauthorized manner such that it is threatened with imminent

1 insolvency, and liquidation is in the best interest of the 2 members; or is undercapitalized and has no reasonable prospect
3 of becoming adequately capitalized, the office may, in its 4 discretion, order the credit union placed in involuntary
5 liquidation and designate and appoint a liquidator to take 6 charge of the assets and affairs of the credit union. The 7 order shall set forth the specific findings and reasons for 8 the action taken. The commission may define by rule criteria
9 for determining if a credit union is undercapitalized or 10 adequately capitalized. In defining such criteria, the
11 commission shall consider the definitions contained in s. 216,
12 the Federal Credit Union Act, codified at 12 U.S.C. 1790d.

13 (2) The liquidator must be appointed by the office.
14 ~~The corporation or the National Credit Union Administration,~~
15 ~~whichever is applicable,~~ must be given the right of first 16 refusal. The office may appoint another entity if refused by 17 the primary ~~guarantor or~~ insurer.

18 (3) Upon appointment and in accordance with the 19 directions of the office, the liquidator shall take possession
20 and charge of all of the assets, books, and records of the 21 credit union and shall take charge of the affairs, business, 22 and operations of the credit union and shall have all of the 23 powers of the board of directors, credit committee, credit
24 manager, and supervisory committee of the credit union. The 25 liquidator shall continue the business operation of the credit
26 union for a period not to exceed 180 days, subject to the 27 direction of the office. The liquidator shall have full
28 authority to make loans and investments and to permit deposits
29 to or withdrawals from accounts by members, except that during 30 the period of such operation by the liquidator, no withdrawal
31 from any account or accounts which are not fully insured ~~or~~

1 ~~guaranteed~~ shall be permitted. Except when prohibited by 2 federal or state law, the liquidator may, without penalty or 3 liability, prepay any deposit accounts; terminate any
4 contracts or agreements with employees, independent
5 contractors, or consultants; terminate any contract or
6 agreement with any person to provide goods, products, or
7 services if the performance of such contract would adversely
8 affect the safety or soundness of the credit union ~~that was~~
9 ~~entered into in violation of s. 657.0315(1) or s. 657.062(2);~~
10 and terminate or assign any lease for property. The 11 liquidator shall proceed with a liquidation of assets by sale
12 or transfer of assets and conversion of assets into cash or 13 liquid investments in preparation for distribution to members
14 on account of shares and deposits. The liquidator shall have 15 specific authority to sell loan assets. The liquidator may 16 enter into agreements for the sale or transfer of loans and 17 other assets with the assumption of outstanding share and 18 deposit accounts, which assumption constitutes full and 19 complete distribution to members on account of shares and 20 deposits.

21 Section 26. Subsections (1), (4), (5), and (7) of 22 section 657.064, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

23 657.064 Voluntary liquidation.--A credit union may 24 elect to dissolve voluntarily and liquidate its affairs in the 25 following manner:

27 voluntary liquidation by the board of directors, the credit
28 union must inform the office and ~~the corporation or the~~
29 ~~National Credit Union Administration, whichever is applicable,~~
30 of the time and place of the meeting of the board of 31

1 directors. The notification must be transmitted at least 10 5
2 days before the board of directors meets.

3 (4) Upon adoption by the board of directors of a
4 resolution recommending that the credit union be voluntarily
5 liquidated, the office ~~corporation~~ or the National Credit
6 Union Administration, ~~whichever is applicable,~~ may restrict
7 control or give directions with respect to the continued
8 business of the credit union pending consideration of the 9 voluntary liquidation by the members. During such period, no
10 member shall withdraw an aggregate amount in excess of the 11 insurance or guaranty covered by the credit union. No new 12 extensions of credit shall be funded during the period between 13 the board of directors' adoption of the resolution
14 recommending the voluntary liquidation and the membership
15 meeting called to consider the voluntary liquidation, except 16 for loans fully secured by a pledge of shares and for the 17 funding of outstanding loan commitments approved before the 18 board of directors adopts the resolution.

19 (5) The notice required by subsection (3) shall also 20 be mailed to the office and the National Credit Union
21 Administration within 5 days after the action of the board of 22 directors. Within 10 days after the meeting of the 23 membership, the board of directors shall notify the office and
24 ~~the corporation or~~ the National Credit Union Administration,
25 ~~whichever is applicable,~~ in writing of the action taken by the 26 members.

27 (7) The ~~corporation or the~~ National Credit Union
28 Administration, ~~whichever is applicable,~~ shall have the right
29 of first refusal to be appointed as liquidator of any 30 liquidating credit union which it ~~guarantees or~~ insures. The 31 liquidator shall have all of the powers provided in s. 657.063

1 regarding involuntary liquidation. If ~~the corporation or the~~
2 National Credit Union Administration declines ~~shall decline~~ to 3 serve as liquidator, the board of directors shall appoint a
4 reasonable person as liquidator and specify the extent of 5 responsibilities and authority delegated to the liquidator.

6 Section 27. Section 657.065, Florida Statutes, is
7 amended to read:

8 (Substantial rewording of section. See
9 s. 657.065, F.S., for present text.)

12 by the constituent credit unions, and upon approval by the 13 office, credit unions may be merged with a surviving state
14 credit union, as prescribed in this code, except that the 15 action by a merging federal credit union must be taken in the 16 manner prescribed by, and is subject to, any limitations or

18 application must be accompanied by a merger plan and agreement
19 together with a certified copy of the authorizing resolutions

21 approval by a majority of the entire board of directors of 22 each credit union, as provided in this section, and a
23 nonrefundable application fee of $500. The fee may be waived
24 by the office for a merger under subsection (6).

25 (2) Nothing in the law of this state shall restrict 26 the right of a state credit union to merge with a surviving 27 federal credit union. In such case, the action to be taken by 28 a merging state credit union, and its rights and liabilities
29 and those of its members, shall be the same as those 30 prescribed for merging federal credit unions at the time of 31 the action by applicable federal law or regulations.

1       (3) If the resulting credit union will be a state
2 credit union, the merging credit unions shall adopt a merger
3 plan and agreement stating the method, terms, and conditions
4 of the merger, including all agreements concerning the merger.
5 The board of directors of each constituent credit union must,
6 by majority vote of the entire board, approve the merger plan
7 and agreement, which shall contain:

8           (a) The name and address of the merging and surviving
9 credit unions;

10          (b) The date, time, and place of the meeting where the 11 merger plan and agreement was approved by the merging and the 12 surviving credit unions' boards of directors;

13          (c) The name and address of the main office of the 14 surviving credit union and each continuing branch office;

15          (d) The names, terms, and board positions of the 16 surviving credit union's board of directors;

17          (e) The name and title of each executive officer;

18          (f) A list of any needed amendments to the surviving 19 credit union's bylaws, if applicable, and, attached to the 20 agreement, copies of the amendments;

21          (g) A statement that the merger and the merger plan
22 and agreement are subject to approval by the office and the 23 National Credit Union Administration; and

24          (h) Such additional provisions not contrary to law as 25 are agreed upon by the constituent credit unions and such 26 other provisions as the office requires to enable it to 27 discharge its duties with respect to the merger.

28       (4) The office shall approve the application and the 29 merger plan and agreement if it finds that:

30           (a) The surviving credit union's net worth is 31 adequate; and

1           (b) The merger will not impair the ongoing viability
2 of the surviving credit union.

3
4 If the office disapproves a merger plan and agreement, it
5 shall state its objections and, chapter 120 notwithstanding,
6 give an opportunity to the merging and surviving credit unions
7 to amend the merger plan and agreement to eliminate such 8 objections.

9           (5) Approval by the office, by final order or 10 otherwise, of the application and merger plan and agreement
11 shall be deemed subject to approval by the membership of the 12 merging credit union who vote on the merger at a meeting duly 13 called for that purpose. Such approval shall be documented by 14 the submission of a copy of:

15           (a) The notice of intent to merger given to the 16 surviving credit union;

17           (b) The notice to the members of the merging credit
18 union of the meeting duly called to consider the merger. Such 19 notice must disclose the purpose of the meeting and the date,
20 time, and place of the meeting; and

21           (c) The resolution adopted by the membership
22 confirming the vote on the merger.

23
24 Unless the approval of the merging credit union has been
25 obtained and proper evidence thereof submitted to the office
26 within 6 months after the approval by the office, the approval
27 by the office of the merger and merger plan and agreement
28 shall be deemed to be revoked and terminated; however, the 29 office on its own motion, or at the request of the merging or 30 surviving credit unions for good cause shown, may extend the 31 time for a period not to exceed 6 months.

1       (6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this
2 chapter or of chapter 120, a credit union may merge without 3 the vote of the membership when the office determines that the 4 credit union is in danger of insolvency or that the credit
5 union is significantly undercapitalized, as defined in s. 216,
6 the Federal Credit Union Act, codified at 12 U.S.C. 1790d and 7 the merger will enable the credit union to avoid liquidation.

8       (7) A merger with a resulting state credit union may 9 not take place or be effective unless approved by the National 10 Credit Union Administration and the office issues a 11 certificate of merger. Upon consummation of the merger, the 12 certificate of authorization of the merged credit union shall 13 be returned to the proper authority to be canceled. Also, at 14 consummation, all property and property rights of, and 15 members' interest in, the merged credit union shall vest in 16 the surviving credit union without deed, endorsement, or other 17 instrument of transfer, and all debts, obligations, and 18 liabilities of the merged credit union must be assumed by the 19 surviving credit union under the certificate of authorization
20 under which the merger was affected. All members of the 21 surviving credit union have the same rights, privileges, and 22 responsibilities after the merger is completed. The 23 certificate of merger must be recorded in the public records
24 of all counties in which the merging credit union owned any 25 real property at the effective date of the merger.

26       Section 28. Section 657.066, Florida Statutes, is

2 and deposits shall remain intact. Any federal credit union
3 seeking to convert to a state-chartered credit union shall pay
4 a nonrefundable filing fee of $500. The office may conduct an

27 resolution adopted by the board of directors and approved by 28 the membership with confirmation of the vote.

29 ~~(7)(5)~~ Every conversion must be completed within 90
30 days after the approval of the authority under the supervision
31 of which the converted credit union will operate. Upon

2 authority under the supervision of which the converted credit
3 union will operate, the old certificate of authorization or 4 charter shall be returned to the proper authority and shall be 5 canceled.
