42 (e) The titling of manufactured and mobile homes.

43 (f) Dispute resolution.

44
45 During the course of the study, the study commission must review
46 the sources funding the programs to determine if the 47 manufactured and mobile home programs are or can be self-
48 sustaining. The study commission shall also consider the impact
49 changes in regulation may have on the industry and its 50 consumers.

51 (3) The study commission shall be administratively
52 supported by the staff of the transportation committees of the 53 Senate and the House of Representatives.

54 (4)(a) The study commission must hold its initial meeting
55 no later than August 15, 2005, in Tallahassee. Staff of the 56 commission shall schedule and organize the initial meeting.
57 Subsequent meetings of the study commission must be held in 58 Tallahassee according to a schedule developed by the chair.

59 (b) At the initial meeting, the study commission shall
60 elect a chair from one of the elected official members.

61 (5) The study commission must submit a final report
62 setting forth its findings and recommendations to the Governor,
63 the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of 64 Representatives on or before January 1, 2006.

65 (6) Members of the study commission shall serve without 66 compensation but are entitled to be reimbursed for per diem and 67 travel expenses under section 112.061, Florida Statutes.
