The Committee on Transportation (Crist) recommended the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Section 335.076, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

335.076 Drawbridge warning system.--The department shall develop construction and operational standards for the installation and operation of a system of cameras, motion sensors, or other devices on new and existing drawbridges to warn the bridge operator of the presence of any pedestrian or vehicle on the bridge prior to and during the raising and lowering of the bridge. The department shall install and maintain such system for the protection of pedestrian and vehicle traffic on new and existing drawbridges on the State Highway System.

Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2005.
