The Committee on Judiciary (Campbell) recommended the following amendment to amendment (912202):

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 107, between lines 24 and 25, insert:

Section 65. Effective upon this act becoming a law, subsection (4) of section 103.091, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

103.091 Political parties.--

(4) Any political party other than a minor political party may by rule provide for the membership of its state or county executive committee to be elected for 4-year terms at the first primary election in each year a presidential election is held; however, any such rule must allow for any Florida registered elector of the party to serve as chair or vice chair of the state executive committee, irrespective of whether such person is a member of the state or any county executive committee of the party. The terms shall commence on the first day of the month following each presidential general

1 election; but the names of candidates for political party
 2 offices shall not be placed on the ballot at any other 3 election. The results of such election shall be determined by 4 a plurality of the votes cast. In such event, electors
 5 seeking to qualify for such office shall do so with the 6 Department of State or supervisor of elections not earlier
 7 than noon of the 57th day, or later than noon of the 53rd day, 8 preceding the first primary election. The outgoing chair of 9 each county executive committee shall, within 30 days after 10 the committee members take office, hold an organizational 11 meeting of all newly elected members for the purpose of 12 electing officers. The chair of each state executive 13 committee shall, within 60 days after the committee members 14 take office, hold an organizational meeting of all newly 15 elected members for the purpose of electing officers.
