Senator Siplin moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. The Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability shall conduct a study to determine whether practices of law enforcement agencies in this state with respect to enforcing laws and rules requiring the use of seat belts in motor vehicles demonstrate a pattern of racial profiling. If the office finds that racial profiling exists, it shall recommend methods to eliminate the practice. The office shall present its report and, if necessary, its recommendations to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives by February 1, 2006.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
