The Committee on Education Appropriations (Bullard)
recommended the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 56, lines 24 through 28, delete those lines

and insert:

(a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of Education use innovations in technology and assessment to allow the Florida Comprehensive Assessment Test (FCAT) to be administered no earlier than March 15 in 2006, no earlier than April 1 in 2007, and no earlier than April 15 in 2008 and beyond. It is the intent that scores will be received before the end of the school year, but scores for students in grade 3 and students in grade 12 who are taking the test for graduation purposes shall be returned before the end of the school year. Other student scores shall be returned no later than June 15 of each year.
