13	Senate Amendment (with title amendment)
14	On page 54, between lines 9 and 10,
15
16	insert:
17	Section 6. Section 163.3183, Florida Statutes, is
18	created to read:
19	163.3183 Urban infill and redevelopmentRecognizing
20	that urban infill and redevelopment is a high state priority,
21	the Legislature determines that local governments should not
22	adopt charter provisions, ordinances, or land-development
23	regulations that conflict with this state priority, unless the 24	purpose of the charter provisions, ordinances, or
25	land-development regulations is to limit impacts to coastal
26	high-hazard areas, historic districts, or aviation operations.
27	Higher density urban development is appropriate in urban areas
28	and should be encouraged in such areas. Conversely, it is
29	appropriate to discourage greater height and density as a
30	development form in areas outside the urban area where such
31	$\frac{development forms are incompatible with existing land uses.}{1}$

1	Notwithstanding chapter 125 and s. 163.3171, any existing or
2	future charter provision, ordinance, land-development
3	regulation, or countywide special act by a charter county
4	which governs the use, development, or redevelopment of land
5	shall not be effective within or applicable to any
6	municipality of the county unless the charter provision,
7	ordinance, land-development regulation, or countywide special
8	act is approved by a majority vote of the electors within the
9	county and the municipality or is approved by a majority vote
10	of the municipality's governing board. Existing charter
11	provisions and countywide special acts that have been approved
12	by referendum prior to the effective date of this act must be
13	readopted in accordance with this section in order to apply
14	within a municipality. If a conflict exists between a
15	countywide ordinance and a municipal ordinance within a
16	charter county which regulate expressive conduct, the more
17	restrictive ordinance shall govern. This section does not apply to any county as defined in s. 125.011.
