The Committee on Criminal Justice (Smith) recommended the following amendment to amendment (191782):

Senate Amendment

On page 3, between lines 6 and 7,

insert:

The presumption provided for in this section does not apply in circumstances in which a law enforcement officer as defined in s. 943.10 enters or attempts to enter a dwelling, residence, or vehicle in the performance of his or her official duties and the officer has identified himself or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person entering or attempting to enter was a law enforcement officer.
