           Section 4. Section 776.032, Florida Statutes, is created to read:
 4
 5
           776.032 Immunity from criminal prosecution and civil action for justifiable use of force. -- 6
 7
          (1) A person who uses force as permitted in s.
    776.012, s. 776.013, or s. 776.031 is justified in using such
 8 9
    force and is immune from criminal prosecution and civil action for the use of such force, unless the person against whom 10
    force was used is a law enforcement officer, as defined in s.
11
    943.10(14), who was acting in the performance of his or her 12
13
    official duties and the officer identified himself or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person using 14
    force knew or reasonably should have known that the person was 15
    a law enforcement officer. As used in this subsection, the 16
    term "criminal prosecution" includes arresting, detaining in 17
18
    custody, and charging or prosecuting the defendant.
19
          (2) A law enforcement agency may use standard procedures for investigating the use of force as described in 20
    subsection (1), but the agency may not arrest the person for 2.1
22
    using force unless it determines that there is probable cause 2.3
    that the force that was used was unlawful.
24
          (3) The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees,
    court costs, compensation for loss of income, and all expenses
2.5
    incurred by the defendant in defense of any civil action 26
   brought by a plaintiff if the court finds that the defendant
2.7
2.8
    is immune from prosecution as provided in subsection (1).
29
           Section 5. This act shall take effect October 1, 2005.
