29 of other health care facilities or services beyond the 30 boundaries of the Sarasota County Public Hospital District, the 31 Hospital Board shall be expressly prohibited from using any 32 funds derived from the assessment of ad valorem taxes on 33 property located within the District to support any such joint 34 participation or to establish or provide any health care 35 facility or health care service beyond the boundaries of the 36 District, it being the express intent of the Legislature that 37 any ad valorem tax funds be used solely toward health care
 38 facilities or health care services within the District.

39 (22) The Hospital Board is authorized and empowered to 40 contract with individuals, partnerships, corporations, 41 municipalities, the county, the state, and any subdivision or 42 agency thereof in the United States of America, to carry out the 43 purposes of this act, including participation in the joint 44 provision with other hospitals and health care providers of all
 45 manner of inpatient and outpatient facilities and health care
 46 services which provide benefit to those members of the public 47 served by the hospital or hospitals of the District both within 48 and beyond the boundaries of the Sarasota County Public Hospital
 49 District and to the extent such participation is consistent with 50 all restrictions contained in the constitution and general laws
 51 of the state and the provisions of sections 408.031-408.0455,
 52 Florida Statutes.

53 (23) The Hospital Board shall have and exercise all powers
 54 necessary, incidental, or convenient to effect any or all of the 55 purposes for which the District or the Hospital Board is 56 organized under the provisions of this act.
