16 and insert:

17 (b) The agency shall develop a procedure for 18 determining whether health care providers and service vendors
19 can provide the Medicaid program using a business case that 20 demonstrates whether a particular good or service can offset
21 the cost of providing the good or service in an alternative
22 setting or through other means and therefore should receive a
23 higher reimbursement. The business case must include, but need 24 not be limited to:

25 1. A detailed description of the good or service to be 26 provided, a description and analysis of the agency's current 27 performance of the service, and a rationale documenting how 28 providing the service in an alternative setting would be in 29 the best interest of the state, the agency, and its clients.

30 2. A cost-benefit analysis documenting the estimated 31 specific direct and indirect costs, savings, performance

1 improvements, risks, and qualitative and quantitative benefits
 2 involved in or resulting from providing the service. The 3 cost-benefit analysis must include a detailed plan and 4 timeline identifying all actions that must be implemented to 5 realize expected benefits. The Secretary of Health Care
 6 Administration shall verify that all costs, savings, and 7 benefits are valid and achievable.
