Florida Senate - 2005

By Senator Wise

1A bill to be entitled2An act relating to student and parent rights;3amending s. 1002.20, F.S.; authorizing certain4K-12 students to self-administer epinephrine by5auto-injector under certain circumstances;6requiring the adoption of rules; providing for7indemnification; providing an effective date.89Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:1011Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of12section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read:131002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of14public school students must receive accurate and timely15information regarding their child's academic progress and must16be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in17school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous18statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following:19(3) HEALTH ISSUES10I. Ebinephrine useA student who has experienced or11is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry21anepinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine22yo auto-injector while in school, participating in23ix chool-sponsored activities if the school has been provided24with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of25gacol district shall be indemnified for any and all liability26with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant <th></th> <th>5-807-05 See HB 279</th>		5-807-05 See HB 279
 amending s. 1002.20, F.S.; authorizing certain K-12 students to self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector under certain circumstances; requiring the adoption of rules; providing for indemnification; providing an effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read: 1002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of public school students must receive accurate and timely information regarding their child's academic progress and must be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: (3) HEALTH ISSUES (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant 	1	A bill to be entitled
 K-12 students to self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector under certain circumstances; requiring the adoption of rules; providing for indemnification; providing an effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read: 1002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of public school students must receive accurate and timely information regarding their child's academic progress and must be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors Larse with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant 	2	An act relating to student and parent rights;
5auto-injector under certain circumstances; requiring the adoption of rules; providing for indemnification; providing an effective date.7indemnification; providing an effective date.8Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:10Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read: 102.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of public school students must receive accurate and timely15information regarding their child's academic progress and must be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: 0 (3) HEALTH ISSUES20(i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in School-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant30with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	3	amending s. 1002.20, F.S.; authorizing certain requiring the adoption of rules; providing for indemnification; providing an effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read: 1002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of public school students must receive accurate and timely information regarding their child's academic progress and must be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: (3) HEALTH ISSUES (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant 	4	K-12 students to self-administer epinephrine by
7indemnification; providing an effective date.89Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:1011Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of12section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read:131002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of14public school students must receive accurate and timely15information regarding their child's academic progress and must16be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in17school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous18statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following:19(3) HEALTH ISSUES20(i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or21is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry22an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine23by auto-injector while in school, participating in24school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school25or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided26with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of27Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall28adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A39school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability30with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	5	auto-injector under certain circumstances;
 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read: 1002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of public school students must receive accurate and timely information regarding their child's academic progress and must be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: (3) HEALTH ISSUES (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant 	6	requiring the adoption of rules; providing for
9Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:101111121213102.20, Florida Statutes, to read:13102.20, K-12 student and parent rightsParents of14public school students must receive accurate and timely151617181919101010111112131414151516161718191010101011121314141515161617171819101010101112131414151516161717181919101010111213141515161717181919101010111213141	7	indemnification; providing an effective date.
1011Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of12section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read:131002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of14public school students must receive accurate and timely15information regarding their child's academic progress and must16be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in17school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous18statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following:19(3)19(3)11Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or11is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry21an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine23by auto-injector while in school, participating in24school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided25or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided26with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of27Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall28adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A29school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability30with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	8
11Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of12section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read:131002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of14public school students must receive accurate and timely15information regarding their child's academic progress and must16be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in17school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous18statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following:19(3) HEALTH ISSUES20(i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or21is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry22an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine23by auto-injector while in school, participating in24school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school25or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided26with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of27Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall28adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant30	9	Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
<pre>12 section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read: 13 1002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of 14 public school students must receive accurate and timely 15 information regarding their child's academic progress and must 16 be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in 17 school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous 18 statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: 19 (3) HEALTH ISSUES 20 (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or 21 is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry 22 an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine 23 by auto-injector while in school, participating in 24 school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided 25 or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided 26 with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of 27 Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall 28 adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A 29 school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability 30 with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant</pre>	10
 13 1002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of 14 public school students must receive accurate and timely 15 information regarding their child's academic progress and must 16 be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in 17 school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous 18 statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: (3) HEALTH ISSUES (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or 11 is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry 21 an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine 23 by auto-injector while in school, participating in 24 school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school 25 or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided 26 with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of 27 Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall 28 adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A 29 school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability 30 with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant 	11	Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (3) of public school students must receive accurate and timely information regarding their child's academic progress and must be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: (3) HEALTH ISSUES (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	12	section 1002.20, Florida Statutes, to read:
information regarding their child's academic progress and must be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: (3) HEALTH ISSUES (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	13	1002.20 K-12 student and parent rightsParents of
be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: (3) HEALTH ISSUES (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	14	public school students must receive accurate and timely
<pre>17 school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous 18 statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: 19 (3) HEALTH ISSUES 20 (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or 21 is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry 22 an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine 23 by auto-injector while in school, participating in 24 school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school 25 or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided 26 with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of 27 Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall 28 adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A 29 school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability 30 with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant</pre>	15	information regarding their child's academic progress and must statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following: (3) HEALTH ISSUES (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	16	be informed of ways they can help their child to succeed in
 (3) HEALTH ISSUES (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant 	17	school. K-12 students and their parents are afforded numerous
 (i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant 	18	statutory rights including, but not limited to, the following:
21 is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry 22 an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine 23 by auto-injector while in school, participating in 24 school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school 25 or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided 26 with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of 27 Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall 28 adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A 29 school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability 30 with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	19	(3) HEALTH ISSUES
an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	20	(i) Epinephrine useA student who has experienced or by auto-injector while in school, participating in school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	21	is at risk for life-threatening allergic reactions may carry
24 school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school 25 or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided 26 with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of 27 Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall 28 adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A 29 school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability 30 with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	22	an epinephrine auto-injector and self-administer epinephrine or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	23	by auto-injector while in school, participating in with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	24	school-sponsored activities, or in transit to or from school
27 Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall 28 adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A 29 school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability 30 with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	25	or school-sponsored activities if the school has been provided
28 adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A 29 school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability 30 with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	26	with parental and physician authorization. The State Board of
29 school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability 30 with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	27	Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health, shall
30 with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant	28	adopt rules for such use of epinephrine auto-injectors. A
	29	school district shall be indemnified for any and all liability
31 to this paragraph.	30	with respect to the use of epinephrine auto-injectors pursuant
	31	to this paragraph.

SB 890

1

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

Florida Senate - 2005 5-807-05 SEE HE 279

1	Section	2.	This	act	shall	take	effect	July	1,	2005.
2
3
4
5
б 7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31

2

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.