17	licensee to the division for distribution to the agency claiming
18	the debt. The division is authorized to issue payment of the
19	prize balance to the prize winner after deduction of the debt.
20	If a prize winner owes multiple debts subject to offset under
21	this subsection and the prize amount is insufficient to cover
22	all such debts, the amount of the prize shall be transmitted
23	first to the agency claiming that past due child support is
24	owed. If a balance of prize amount remains after payment of past
25	due child support, the balance shall be transmitted to other
26	agencies claiming debts owed to the state, pro rata, based upon
27	the ratio of the individual debt to the remaining debt owed to
28	the state.
29	(b) It is the responsibility of the slot machine licensee
30	to ensure that the facilities-based computer system that the
31	licensee uses for operational and accounting functions is
32	specifically configured to ensure the requirements of this
33	subsection are met.
34	(c) It is the responsibility of the division to identify
35	those persons specified under paragraph (a) as having such
36	outstanding obligations and make any transmittals or payments as
37	necessary.
38	(d) The division may adopt rules pursuant to ss.
39	120.536(1) and 120.54 to implement the provisions of this
40	subsection, including the technical requirements of the
41	facilities-based computer system.
