A resolution recognizing the City of Bradenton on being selected one of the One Hundred Best Communities in America for Young People.

WHEREAS, this year "America's Promise - The Alliance for Youth" teamed up with Capital One Financial Corporation in a first-ever national competition to identify the best communities in America for young people, and

WHEREAS, the criteria by which communities were to be judged included community support of children and youth, resources provided to children and youth in the community, and consequent outcomes for children and youth, and

WHEREAS, these criteria were based on the following five promises to children - caring adults, safe places, a healthy start, effective education, and opportunities to help others, and

WHEREAS, the City of Bradenton met all these criteria to become designated one of the One Hundred Best Communities for Young People in the nation, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That the Senate recognizes and commends the achievements of the City of Bradenton in providing a caring, safe, healthy, and supportive environment for children and young people and applauds its consequent recognition in receiving this honor.
