

A bill to be entitled

An act relating to education; authorizing individual district school boards by resolution to allow an inspirational message at specified secondary school-related events; providing requirements; providing legislative intent; providing severability; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Any district school board is authorized to adopt a resolution allowing the use of an inspirational message, including an invocation or a benediction, at a secondary school commencement exercise or a secondary school-related noncompulsory student assembly. The resolution must provide:

(1) That the use of an inspirational message shall be at the discretion of the students.

(2) That an inspirational message, if used, shall be given by a student volunteer.

(3) That school personnel shall not participate in or otherwise influence the exercise of the discretion of the students in the determination of whether to use an inspirational message.

Section 2. The purpose of this act is to provide for the solemnization and memorialization of secondary school events and ceremonies, and this act is not intended to advance or endorse any religion or religious belief.

Section 3. If any provision of this act or the application

HB 1045

2006

29 thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the 30 invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of 31 the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision
32 or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are 33 declared severable.

34 Section 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 2006.
