3 Amendment

4 Remove line(s) 161-166 and insert:

5 (e) If the other parent and any other person entitled to 6 visitation with the child fails to timely file an objection, it 7 shall be presumed that the relocation is in the best interest of 8 the child, the relocation shall be allowed, and the court shall, 9 absent good cause, enter an order, attaching a copy of the 10 Notice of Intent to Relocate, reflecting that the order is 11 entered as a result of the failure to object to the Notice of 12 Intent to Relocate, and adopting the visitation schedule and 13 transportation arrangements contained in the Notice of Intent to 14 Relocate. The order may issue in an expedited manner without the 15 necessity of an evidentiary hearing. If an objection is timely 16 filed, the burden returns to the parent or person seeking to
