18 management districts under this part, and interagency 19 agreements, in effect on January 1, 1993. Such activities shall 20 be exempt from rules adopted pursuant to subsection (9) and the 21 statewide methodology ratified pursuant to s. 373.4211. As of 22 January 1, 1994, such activities may be issued permits
23 authorizing construction for the life of the mine. Lands added
24 to a conceptual reclamation plan subject to this paragraph 25 through a modification submitted after July 1, 1996, that are 26 contiguous to the conceptual reclamation plan area shall be 27 exempt from rules adopted under subsection (9), provided that 28 the total acreage of the conceptual reclamation plan may not be 29 increased through such modification and the cumulative acreage
30 added may not exceed 3 percent of the conceptual reclamation
31 plan area. Lands that have been mined or disturbed by mining 32 activities, lands subject to a conservation easement under which 33 the grantee is a state or federal regulatory agency, and lands
34 otherwise preserved as a part of a permitting review may not be 35 removed from the conceptual reclamation plan area under this 36 subsection.
