Senators Siplin and Hill moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 74 and 75,

insert:

Section 4.

(1) Each supervisor of elections shall supply, as needed, voter registration applications to each retailer, as defined in s. 24.103, Florida Statutes, who sells lottery tickets in this state and the subagents of such retailer. At each location where lottery tickets are sold in this state, voter registration applications shall be displayed and made available to the public.

(2) Each retailer, as defined in s. 24.103, Florida Statutes, or subagent of such retailer shall ask each person who buys a lottery ticket in this state if he or she would like a voter registration application and may provide such application to the buyer but shall not assist such buyers with voter registration applications or collect complete or incomplete voter registration applications.

1       (3) When acting in its official capacity pursuant to
2 this section, neither a retailer nor a subagent is deemed a
3 third-party registration organization, as defined in s.
4 97.021(36), Florida Statutes, or a voter registration agency,
5 as defined in s. 97.021(40), Florida Statutes, and is not
6 authorized to solicit, accept, or collect voter registration
7 applications or provide voter registration services.
