The Committee on Criminal Justice (Smith) recommended the following amendment to amendment (660110):

Senate Amendment

On page 2, lines 10-15, delete those lines and insert: 901 and shall have statewide jurisdiction. Such officers have full law enforcement powers granted to other peace officers of this state, including the authority to make arrests, carry firearms, serve court process, and seize contraband and the proceeds of illegal activities, except that a youth custody officer may not exercise any power or duty authorized in chapter 316 or in s. 901.15(5).
