The Committee on Commerce and Consumer Services (Lynn) recommended the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 3, line 27, through page 5, line 4, delete those lines and insert: safer dating practices as determined by the provider. The notification shall be included within the terms and conditions provided to new members when signing up.

Examples of such notifications include:

(a) "Anyone who is able to commit identity theft can also falsify a dating profile."

(b) "There is no substitute for acting with caution when communicating with any stranger who wants to meet you."

(c) "Never include your last name, e-mail address, home address, phone number, place of work, or any other identifying information in your on-line profile or initial e-mail messages. Stop communicating with anyone who pressures you for personal or financial information or attempts in any way to trick you into revealing it."

1 (d) "If you choose to have a face-to-face meeting with 2 another member, always tell someone in your family or a friend 3 where you are going and when you will return. Never agree to 4 be picked up at your home. Always provide your own 5 transportation to and from your date and meet in a public 6 place at a time with many people around."

7 (2) If an on-line dating service provider does not 8 conduct criminal background screenings on its members, the 9 provider shall disclose, clearly and conspicuously, to all 10 Florida members that the on-line dating service provider does 11 not conduct criminal background screenings.

12 (3) If an on-line dating service provider conducts 13 criminal background screenings on all of its communicating 14 members, then the provider shall disclose, clearly and 15 conspicuously, to all Florida members that the on-line dating 16 service provider conducts a criminal background screening on 17 each member prior to permitting a Florida member to 18 communicate with another member.
