Senator Haridopolos moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 10, between lines 28 and 29,

insert:

Section 9. Subsection (1) of section 364.386, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

364.386 Reports to the Legislature.--

(1) The commission shall submit to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the majority and minority leaders of the Senate and the House of Representatives, on December 1, 1996, and on an annual basis thereafter, a report on the status of competition in the telecommunications industry and a detailed exposition of the following:

(a) The overall impact of local exchange telecommunications competition on the continued availability of universal service.

(b) The ability of competitive providers to make functionally equivalent local exchange services available to

1 both residential and business customers at competitive rates,
2 terms, and conditions.

3 (c) The ability of consumers to obtain functionally
4 equivalent services at comparable rates, terms, and 5 conditions.

6 (d) The overall impact of price regulation on the 7 maintenance of reasonably affordable and reliable high-quality
8 telecommunications services.

9 (e) What additional services, if any, should be
10 included in the definition of basic local telecommunications
11 services, taking into account advances in technology and 12 market demand.

13 (f) Any other information and recommendations which 14 may be in the public interest.

15
16 The Florida Public Service Commission as part of this report
17 shall make recommendations to the Legislature concerning how 18 the reporting requirements, information requests, and data
19 requests of this report and its regulatory burdens may be 20 streamlined or eliminated, including the use of existing
21 information provided to the Federal Communications Commission
22 or other federal agencies. These recommendations shall be
23 developed in consultation with the telecommunications
24 companies, competitive local exchange providers, competitive
25 telecommunications companies, and other interested parties.
