SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Current law does not permit a state building, road, bridge, park, recreation complex, or similar facility to be named after a living person unless the name designation is approved by law. Pursuant to this requirement, if a university wishes to name a particular building or facility after a living person, the designation must be approved by the Legislature.

The bill permits the University of South Florida St. Petersburg in Pinellas County to designate the building known as Coquina Hall as "H. William Heller Hall" and to erect suitable markers and signs acknowledging this designation. The bill takes effect upon the effective date of the retirement or resignation of H. William Heller from, or the termination of H. William Heller's employment with, the University of South Florida St. Petersburg.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

The bill does not appear to implicate any of the House Principles.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Section 267.062, F.S., provides that no state building, road, bridge, park, recreational complex, or similar facility can be named after a living person unless approved by law. Therefore, if a university wishes to name a particular building or facility after a living person, the designation must be approved by the Legislature.

A section-by-section analysis of the bill follows. The biographical information was provided by the University of South Florida St. Petersburg.

Section 1: The bill designates the building known as Coquina Hall at the University of South Florida St. Petersburg in Pinellas County as "H. William Heller Hall." Coquina Hall currently houses the College of Education. The bill directs the University of South Florida St. Petersburg to erect suitable markers and signs acknowledging the designation.

H. William Heller is a professor at the University of South Florida St. Petersburg. A former Vice President of the St. Petersburg campus, Dr. Heller joined the staff of the University of South Florida in 1992. Since that time, he has been awarded more than $18 million in grants and contracts and is currently responsible for directing, as principle investigator, projects funded in excess of $1 million.

Dr. Heller has been awarded the Presidential Citation for Exemplary Performance as Vice-Chairman of the White House Conference on Handicapped Individuals as well as the Teacher Educator of the Year Award, Teaching Education Division by the Council of Exceptional Children and the Merrill Publishing Company. He was also the recipient of the 1991 E. Wallace Wallin Award by the Council for Exceptional Children. This award, the highest honor bestowed by the Council, is predicated on excellence in leadership, service, and accomplishments in the education of children with exceptionalities. He has been awarded the United Way Alex de Tocqueville Society Volunteer Service Award, the Outstanding Service Award by the U.S. Air Force and U.S. Department of Defense, and the Romaine Mackie Leadership Award in Special Education by the Pioneer Division of the Council for Exceptional Children. In 2002, Dr. Heller was honored by the City of St. Petersburg for a "Decade of Excellence," and August 21, 2002, was proclaimed Bill Heller Day by the City of St. Petersburg. He was recently nominated for the Outstanding Leadership Award in Special Education by the Council for Exceptional Children; the recipient will be announced in April 2006. In addition, Dr. Heller was selected by faculty to become the first recipient of the Excellence in Professional Service Award from the University of South Florida St. Petersburg.

Dr. Heller has served in leadership roles with the Council for Exceptional Children, the American Association for Mental Retardation, the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards, the American Association for Colleges for Teacher Education, and the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education. He served two terms as the head of the Faculty Council for the St. Petersburg campus and was selected by the administration to chair the committee to revise the University of South Florida St. Petersburg Strategic Plan. His professional contributions include more than 350 presentations and publications.

Section 2: Provides an effective date of the date of retirement or resignation of H. William Heller from, or the termination of H. William Heller's employment with, the University of South Florida St. Petersburg.
