

1 (b) A subagent may sell licenses and permits as 2 authorized by the commission at specific locations within the 3 county and in states as will best serve the public interest
4 and convenience in obtaining licenses and permits. The 5 commission may prohibit subagents from selling certain 6 licenses or permits.

7 (c) It is unlawful for any person to handle licenses
8 or permits for a fee or compensation of any kind unless he or 9 she has been appointed as a subagent.

10 (d) Any person who willfully violates any of the 11 provisions of this section commits a misdemeanor of the second 12 degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

13 (e) A subagent may charge and receive as his or her
14 compensation 50 cents for each license or permit sold. This 15 charge is in addition to the sum required by law to be 16 collected for the sale and issuance of each license or permit.

17 (f) A subagent shall submit payment for and report the 18 sale of licenses and permits to the commission as prescribed
19 by the commission.

20 (2) The Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission or 21 any other law enforcement agency may carry out any 22 investigation necessary to secure information required to 23 carry out and enforce this section.

24 (3) All social security numbers that are provided 25 pursuant to ss. 372.561 and 372.57 and are contained in 26 records of any subagent appointed under this section are 27 confidential as provided in those sections.

28 (4)(a) All subagents appointed under this section
29 shall provide the opportunity to register to vote or to update
30 a voter registration record to each individual who comes to 31 the subagent to purchase any resident hunting license, fishing

1 license, combination license, or trapping permit. Each
2 subagent shall provide each individual with a voter 3 registration application, which shall be provided to the 4 subagent by the voter registration office in the subagent's
5 county.

6 (b) Within 30 days after the effective date of this 7 act, each supervisor of elections shall provide an appropriate 8 supply of voter registration applications to each subagent in 9 that supervisor's county and thereafter at the request of the 10 subagent along with appropriate contact information for each
11 subagent to request additional applications.

12 (c) Failure to comply with any provision of this 13 subsection by any subagent or supervisor of elections shall 14 constitute a civil infraction subject to a minimum fine of 15 $500 for the first infraction, $1,000 for the second 16 infraction, and $2,500 for each subsequent infraction.

17 Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a 18 law.
