The Committee on Health Care (Saunders) recommended the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 17, lines 5-9, delete those lines

and insert:

2. If the insured fails to furnish the provider with the correct name and address of the insured's personal injury protection insurer, the provider has 75 days following the date the provider obtains the correct information to furnish the insurer with a statement of the charges. The insurer is not required to pay for such charges unless the provider includes with the statement:

a. Documentary evidence that was provided by the insured during the 75-day period demonstrating that the provider reasonably relied on erroneous information from the insured;

b. A denial letter from the incorrect insurer; or

c. Proof of mailing, which may include an affidavit under penalty of perjury, reflecting timely mailing to the
