ENROLLED

2006 Legislature CS for CS for SB 2184, 1st Engrossed (ntc)

1           61.13001 Parental relocation with a child.--
2           (1) DEFINITIONS.--As used in this section:
3           (a) "Change of residence address" means the relocation
4 of a child to a principal residence more than 50 miles away 5 from his or her principal place of residence at the time of 6 the entry of the last order establishing or modifying the 7 designation of the primary residential parent or the custody
8 of the minor child, unless the move places the principal 9 residence of the minor child less than 50 miles from the 10 nonresidential parent.
11           (b) "Child" means any person who is under the 12 jurisdiction of a state court pursuant to the Uniform Child 13 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act or is the subject of 14 any order granting to a parent or other person any right to 15 residential care, custody, or visitation as provided under 16 state law.
17           (c) "Court" means the circuit court in an original 18 proceeding which has proper venue and jurisdiction in 19 accordance with the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and 20 Enforcement Act, the circuit court in the county in which 21 either parent and the child reside, or the circuit court in 22 which the original action was adjudicated.
23           (d) "Other person" means an individual who is not the 24 parent and who, by court order, maintains the primary 25 residence of a child or has visitation rights with a child.
26           (e) "Parent" means any person so named by court order 27 or express written agreement that is subject to court
28 enforcement or a person reflected as a parent on a birth 29 certificate and in whose home a child maintains a primary or 30 secondary residence.
31

2006 Legislature CS for CS for SB 2184, 1st Engrossed (ntc)

1           (f) "Person entitled to be the primary residential 2 parent of a child" means a person so designated by court order
3 or by an express written agreement that is subject to court 4 enforcement or a person seeking such a designation, or, when 5 neither parent has been designated as primary residential 6 parent, the person seeking to relocate with a child.

7           (g) "Principal residence of a child" means the home of 8 the designated primary residential parent. For purposes of 9 this section only, when rotating custody is in effect, each 10 parent shall be considered to be the primary residential 11 parent.

12           (h) "Relocation" means a change in the principal 13 residence of a child for a period of 60 consecutive days or 14 more but does not include a temporary absence from the 15 principal residence for purposes of vacation, education, or 16 the provision of health care for the child.

17           (2) RELOCATION BY AGREEMENT.--

18           (a) If the primary residential parent and the other 19 parent and every other person entitled to visitation with the 20 child agree to the relocation of the child's principal 21 residence, they may satisfy the requirements of this section 22 by signing a written agreement that:

23           1. Reflects the consent to the relocation;

24           2. Defines the visitation rights for the nonrelocating 25 parent and any other persons who are entitled to visitation; 26 and

27           3. Describes, if necessary, any transportation 28 arrangements related to the visitation.

29           (b) If there is an existing cause of action, judgment, 30 or decree of record pertaining to the child's primary 31 residence or visitation, the parties shall seek ratification

1 of the agreement by court order without the necessity of an 2 evidentiary hearing unless a hearing is requested, in writing, 3 by one or more of the parties to the agreement within 10 days
4 after the date the agreement is filed with the court. If a 5 hearing is not timely requested, it shall be presumed that the 6 relocation is in the best interest of the child and the court 7 may ratify the agreement without an evidentiary hearing.

8 (3) NOTICE OF INTENT TO RELOCATE WITH A CHILD.--Unless 9 an agreement has been entered as described in subsection (2), 10 a parent who is entitled to primary residence of the child 11 shall notify the other parent, and every other person entitled 12 to visitation with the child, of a proposed relocation of the 13 child's principal residence. The form of notice shall be 14 according to this section:

15 (a) The parent seeking to relocate shall prepare a 16 Notice of Intent to Relocate. The following information must 17 be included with the Notice of Intent to Relocate and signed 18 under oath under penalty of perjury:

19 1. A description of the location of the intended new 20 residence, including the state, city, and specific physical 21 address, if known.

22 2. The mailing address of the intended new residence, 23 if not the same as the physical address, if known.

24 3. The home telephone number of the intended new 25 residence, if known.

26 4. The date of the intended move or proposed 27 relocation.

28 5. A detailed statement of the specific reasons for 29 the proposed relocation of the child. If one of the reasons is 30 based upon a job offer which has been reduced to writing, that 31

1 written job offer must be attached to the Notice of Intent to 2 Relocate.

3 6. A proposal for the revised postrelocation schedule
4 of visitation together with a proposal for the postrelocation
5 transportation arrangements necessary to effectuate visitation
6 with the child. Absent the existence of a current, valid order 7 abating, terminating, or restricting visitation or other good 8 cause predating the Notice of Intent to Relocate, failure to 9 comply with this provision renders the Notice of Intent to 10 Relocate legally insufficient.

11 7. Substantially the following statement, in all 12 capital letters and in the same size type, or larger, as the 13 type in the remainder of the notice:

14
15 AN OBJECTION TO THE PROPOSED RELOCATION MUST BE MADE IN 16 WRITING, FILED WITH THE COURT, AND SERVED ON THE PARENT OR 17 OTHER PERSON SEEKING TO RELOCATE WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER SERVICE
18 OF THIS NOTICE OF INTENT TO RELOCATE. IF YOU FAIL TO TIMELY 19 OBJECT TO THE RELOCATION, THE RELOCATION WILL BE ALLOWED, 20 UNLESS IT IS NOT IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD, WITHOUT 21 FURTHER NOTICE AND WITHOUT A HEARING.

22 8. The mailing address of the parent or other person 23 seeking to relocate to which the objection filed under 24 subsection (5) to the Notice of Intent to Relocate should be 25 sent.

26
27 The contents of the Notice of Intent to Relocate are not 28 privileged. For purposes of encouraging amicable resolution of 29 the relocation issue, a copy of the Notice of Intent to 30 Relocate shall initially not be filed with the court but 31 instead served upon the nonrelocating parent, other person,

1 and every other person entitled to visitation with the child, 2 and the original thereof shall be maintained by the parent or 3 other person seeking to relocate.

4 (b) The parent seeking to relocate shall also prepare 5 a Certificate of Filing Notice of Intent to Relocate. The 6 certificate shall certify the date that the Notice of Intent
7 to Relocate was served on the other parent and on every other 8 person entitled to visitation with the child.

9 (c) The Notice of Intent to Relocate, and the 10 Certificate of Filing Notice of Intent to Relocate, shall be 11 served on the other parent and on every other person entitled 12 to visitation with the child. If there is a pending court 13 action regarding the child, service of process may be 14 according to court rule. Otherwise, service of process shall 15 be according to chapters 48 and 49 or via certified mail, 16 restricted delivery, return receipt requested.

17 (d) A person giving notice of a proposed relocation or 18 change of residence address under this section has a 19 continuing duty to provide current and updated information 20 required by this section when that information becomes known.

21 (e) If the other parent and any other person entitled 22 to visitation with the child fails to timely file an 23 objection, it shall be presumed that the relocation is in the 24 best interest of the child, the relocation shall be allowed,
25 and the court shall, absent good cause, enter an order,
26 attaching a copy of the Notice of Intent to Relocate, 27 reflecting that the order is entered as a result of the 28 failure to object to the Notice of Intent to Relocate, and 29 adopting the visitation schedule and transportation
30 arrangements contained in the Notice of Intent to Relocate.
31 The order may issue in an expedited manner without the

1 necessity of an evidentiary hearing. If an objection is timely 2 filed, the burden returns to the parent or person seeking to 3 relocate to initiate court proceedings to obtain court 4 permission to relocate prior to doing so.

5 (f) The act of relocating the child after failure to 6 comply with the notice of intent to relocate procedure
7 described in this subsection subjects the party in violation 8 thereof to contempt and other proceedings to compel the return 9 of the child and may be taken into account by the court in any 10 initial or postjudgment action seeking a determination or 11 modification of the designation of the primary residential 12 parent or of the residence, custody, or visitation with the 13 child as:

14 1. A factor in making a determination regarding the 15 relocation of a child.

16 2. A factor in determining whether the designation of 17 the primary residential parent or the residence, contact, 18 access, visitation, or time-sharing arrangements should be 19 modified.

20 3. A basis for ordering the temporary or permanent 21 return of the child.

22 4. Sufficient cause to order the parent or other 23 person seeking to relocate the child to pay reasonable 24 expenses and attorney's fees incurred by the party objecting 25 to the relocation.

26 5. Sufficient cause for the award of reasonable 27 attorney's fees and costs, including interim travel expenses 28 incident to visitation or securing the return of the child.

29 (4) APPLICABILITY OF PUBLIC RECORDS LAW.--If the 30 parent or other person seeking to relocate a child, or the 31 child, is entitled to prevent disclosure of location

1 information under any public records exemption applicable to 2 that person, the court may enter any order necessary to modify 3 the disclosure requirements of this section in compliance with 4 the public records exemption.

5 (5) CONTENT OF OBJECTION TO RELOCATION.--An objection
6 seeking to prevent the relocation of a child shall be verified 7 and served within 30 days after service of the Notice of 8 Intent to Relocate. The objection shall include the specific 9 factual basis supporting the reasons for seeking a prohibition 10 of the relocation, including a statement of the amount of 11 participation or involvement the objecting party currently has 12 or has had in the life of the child.

13 (6) TEMPORARY ORDER.--

14 (a) The court may grant a temporary order restraining 15 the relocation of a child or ordering the return of the child, 16 if a relocation has previously taken place, or other 17 appropriate remedial relief, if the court finds:

18 1. The required notice of a proposed relocation of a 19 child was not provided in a timely manner;

20 2. The child already has been relocated without notice
21 or written agreement of the parties or without court approval; 22 or

23 3. From an examination of the evidence presented at 24 the preliminary hearing that there is a likelihood that upon 25 final hearing the court will not approve the relocation of the 26 primary residence of the child.

27 (b) The court may grant a temporary order permitting 28 the relocation of the child pending final hearing, if the 29 court:

30 1. Finds that the required Notice of Intent to 31 Relocate was provided in a timely manner; and

1           2. Finds from an examination of the evidence presented 2 at the preliminary hearing that there is a likelihood that on 3 final hearing the court will approve the relocation of the 4 primary residence of the child, which findings must be 5 supported by the same factual basis as would be necessary to 6 support the permitting of relocation in a final judgment.

7           (c) If the court has issued a temporary order 8 authorizing a party seeking to relocate or move a child before 9 a final judgment is rendered, the court may not give any 10 weight to the temporary relocation as a factor in reaching its 11 final decision.

12           (d) If temporary relocation of a child is permitted, 13 the court may require the person relocating the child to 14 provide reasonable security, financial or otherwise, and 15 guarantee that the court-ordered contact with the child will 16 not be interrupted or interfered with by the relocating party.

17           (7) NO PRESUMPTION; FACTORS TO DETERMINE CONTESTED
18 RELOCATION.--No presumption shall arise in favor of or against 19 a request to relocate with the child when a primary 20 residential parent seeks to move the child and the move will 21 materially affect the current schedule of contact, access, and 22 time-sharing with the nonrelocating parent or other person. In 23 reaching its decision regarding a proposed temporary or 24 permanent relocation, the court shall evaluate all of the 25 following factors:

26           (a) The nature, quality, extent of involvement, and 27 duration of the child's relationship with the parent proposing 28 to relocate with the child and with the nonrelocating parent, 29 other persons, siblings, half-siblings, and other significant 30 persons in the child's life.

31

- 1        (b) The age and developmental stage of the child, the 2 needs of the child, and the likely impact the relocation will 3 have on the child's physical, educational, and emotional 4 development, taking into consideration any special needs of 5 the child.
- 6        (c) The feasibility of preserving the relationship 7 between the nonrelocating parent or other person and the child
8 through substitute arrangements that take into consideration 9 the logistics of contact, access, visitation, and time 10 sharing, as well as the financial circumstances of the 11 parties; whether those factors are sufficient to foster a 12 continuing meaningful relationship between the child and the 13 nonrelocating parent or other person; and the likelihood of 14 compliance with the substitute arrangements by the relocating
15 parent once he or she is out of the jurisdiction of the court.
- 16        (d) The child's preference, taking into consideration 17 the age and maturity of the child.
- 18        (e) Whether the relocation will enhance the general 19 quality of life for both the parent seeking the relocation and 20 the child, including, but not limited to, financial or 21 emotional benefits or educational opportunities.
- 22        (f) The reasons of each parent or other person for 23 seeking or opposing the relocation.
- 24        (g) The current employment and economic circumstances 25 of each parent or other person and whether or not the proposed 26 relocation is necessary to improve the economic circumstances 27 of the parent or other person seeking relocation of the child.
- 28        (h) That the relocation is sought in good faith and 29 the extent to which the objecting parent has fulfilled his or 30 her financial obligations to the parent or other person
31

1 seeking relocation, including child support, spousal support,
2 and marital property and marital debt obligations.

3 (i) The career and other opportunities available to 4 the objecting parent or objecting other person if the 5 relocation occurs.

6 (j) A history of substance abuse or domestic violence
7 as defined in s. 741.28 or which meets the criteria of s.
8 39.806(1)(d) by either parent, including a consideration of 9 the severity of such conduct and the failure or success of any 10 attempts at rehabilitation.

11 (k) Any other factor affecting the best interest of 12 the child or as set forth in s. 61.13.

13 (8) BURDEN OF PROOF.--The parent or other person 14 wishing to relocate has the burden of proof if an objection is 15 filed and must then initiate a proceeding seeking court
16 permission for relocation. The initial burden is on the parent 17 or person wishing to relocate to prove by a preponderance of 18 the evidence that relocation is in the best interest of the 19 child. If that burden of proof is met, the burden shifts to 20 the nonrelocating parent or other person to show by a 21 preponderance of the evidence that the proposed relocation is 22 not in the best interest of the child.

23 (9) ORDER REGARDING RELOCATION.--If relocation is 24 permitted:

25 (a) The court may, in its discretion, order contact 26 with the nonrelocating parent, including access, visitation, 27 time sharing, telephone, Internet, web-cam, and other 28 arrangements sufficient to ensure that the child has frequent, 29 continuing, and meaningful contact, access, visitation, and 30 time sharing with the nonrelocating parent or other persons, 31

1 if contact is financially affordable and in the best interest
2 of the child.

3 (b) If applicable, the court shall specify how the 4 transportation costs will be allocated between the parents and 5 other persons entitled to contact, access, visitation, and 6 time sharing and may adjust the child support award, as 7 appropriate, considering the costs of transportation and the 8 respective net incomes of the parents in accordance with state 9 child support guidelines.

10 (10) PRIORITY FOR HEARING OR TRIAL.--An evidentiary 11 hearing or nonjury trial on a pleading seeking temporary or 12 permanent relief filed pursuant to this section shall be 13 accorded priority on the court's calendar.

14 (11) APPLICABILITY.--

15 (a) The provisions of this section apply:

16 1. To orders entered before October 1, 2006, if the 17 existing order defining custody, primary residence, or 18 visitation of or with the child does not expressly govern the 19 relocation of the child.

20 2. To an order, whether temporary or permanent, 21 regarding the custody, primary residence, or visitation of or 22 with the child entered on or after October 1, 2006.

23 3. To any relocation or proposed relocation, whether 24 permanent or temporary, of a child during any proceeding
25 pending on October 1, 2006, wherein the custody, primary 26 residence, or visitation of or with the child is an issue.

27 (b) To the extent that a provision of this section 28 conflicts with an order existing on October 1, 2006, this 29 section does not apply to the terms of that order which 30 expressly govern relocation of the child or a change in the 31 principal residence address of a parent.
