The Committee on Governmental Oversight and Productivity (Argenziano) recommended the following amendment to amendment (551320):

Senate Amendment

On page 2, line 9, after the period insert: The clerk of the circuit court shall immediately and conspicuously post signs throughout his or her offices for public viewing and shall immediately and conspicuously post, on any Internet website or remote electronic site made available by the clerk of the circuit court, a notice stating, in substantially similar form, the following:

(I) On or after October 1, 2006, any person preparing or filing a court document may not include a social security number of a complete bank account, debit, charge, or credit card number in such document, unless required by law or court rule, or necessary to the adjudication of the case.

II. Any person has a right to request that the clerk of the circuit court remove from an image or copy of a court document a social security number or complete bank account,

1 debit, charge, or credit card number contained in a court 2 document. Such request must be made in writing and delivered 3 by mail, facsimile, electronic transmission, or in person to 4 the clerk of the circuit court. The request must specify the 5 case number, the title of the document, and the identification 6 page number of the document which contains the number to be 7 redacted. A fee will not be charged for the redaction of a 8 social security number or a complete bank account, debit, 9 charge, or credit card number pursuant to such a request.
