3 Amendment (with directory and title amendments)

4 Between lines 268 and 269, insert:

5 (5) The executive director of the office may deny
6 registration to a professional guardian if the executive 7 director determines that the guardian's proposed registration,
8 including the guardian's credit or criminal investigations,
9 indicates that registering the professional guardian would 10 violate any provision of this chapter. If a guardian who is 11 currently registered with the office violates a provision of 12 this chapter, the executive director of the office may suspend
13 or revoke the guardian's registration. If the executive director 14 denies registration to a professional guardian or suspends or 15 revokes a professional guardian's registration, the Statewide 16 Public Guardianship Office must send written notification of the 17 denial, suspension, or revocation to the chief judge of each
