 16 any other business organization.

17 (5) The executive director of the office may deny
 18 registration to a professional guardian if the executive 19 director determines that the guardian's proposed registration,
 20 including the guardian's credit or criminal investigations, 21 indicates that registering the professional guardian would 22 violate any provision of this chapter. If a guardian who is 23 currently registered with the office violates a provision of 24 this chapter, the executive director of the office may suspend
 25 or revoke the guardian's registration. If the executive 26 director denies registration to a professional guardian or 27 suspends or revokes a professional guardian's registration,
 28 the Statewide Public Guardianship Office must send written 29 notification of the denial, suspension, or revocation to the 30 chief judge of each judicial circuit in which the guardian was 31 serving on the day of the office's decision to deny, suspend,
