The Committee on Education (Klein) recommended the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 15, lines 26-28, delete those lines and insert: and fix uniform dates. Beginning with the 2007-2008 school year, the opening date of the school year may not be earlier than August 15 each year. District school boards that hold regional public meetings to solicit input into the setting of their school calendar may adopt a policy to opt for an alternate opening date at a public meeting of the school board.
