26 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
27

28 Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subsection (6) and 29 subsection (7) of section 787.03, Florida Statutes, are 30 amended to read:

31 787.03 Interference with custody.--

1 (6)

2 (c)~~1.~~ ~~The name of the person taking the child and~~ The 3 current address and telephone number of the person and the 4 minor or incompetent person which are ~~child that are~~ contained 5 in the report made to a sheriff or state attorney under 6 paragraph (b) are confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1)
7 and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution.

8 2. A sheriff or state attorney may allow an agency, as 9 defined in s. 119.011, to inspect and copy records made 10 confidential and exempt under this paragraph in the 11 furtherance of that agency's duties and responsibilities. This 12 paragraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act
13 in accordance with s. 119.15 and is repealed on October 2, 14 2011, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through 15 reenactment by the Legislature.

16 ~~(7)(a) This section is subject to the Open Government~~
17 ~~Sunset Review Act of 1995 in accordance with s. 119.15 and is~~ 18 ~~repealed on October 2, 2006, unless reviewed and saved from~~ 19 ~~repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.~~

20 ~~(b) Pursuant to s. 119.15, the Division of Statutory~~
21 ~~Revision is directed to certify this section, in its entirety,~~
22 ~~in the list of Open Government Sunset Review exemptions to be~~ 23 ~~certified by June 1, 2005.~~

24 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public
25 necessity to expand the public-records exemption for certain
26 information contained in a report to a sheriff or state
27 attorney made by a person who takes a minor in order to escape
28 domestic violence, avoid domestic violence, or preserve the 29 welfare of the minor. If the alleged perpetrator of domestic 30 violence were able to obtain the address and telephone
31 information contained in a report to the sheriff or state

1 attorney, he or she could locate or contact the person who
2 takes a minor and the minor, thus exposing them to potential
3 additional harm. Keeping the address and telephone number of 4 that person and the minor confidential and exempt protects
5 their safety. For the same reasons, the Legislature finds that 6 it is a public necessity to expand this public-records
7 exemption to include the taking of an incompetent person
8 within the coverage of the exemption. The underlying offense 9 of interference with custody applies to the taking of an 10 incompetent person as well as to the taking of a person
11 younger than 18 years of age. In addition, the safety of an 12 incompetent person and the person seeking shelter with an 13 incompetent person is as vital as the safety of a minor and a 14 person seeking shelter with a minor. The underlying offense of 15 interference with custody envisions that an incompetent person
16 is as vulnerable as a minor. Therefore, the Legislature finds
17 that the public-records exemption should apply to the address
18 and telephone number of the person who takes an incompetent
19 person and the incompetent person which are contained in a
20 report submitted to a sheriff or state attorney as prescribed
21 in the interference-with-custody statute. If persons seeking 22 shelter with minors or incompetent persons knew that their 23 addresses or telephone numbers could be obtained through the 24 reports to the sheriff or state attorney, they would fear for 25 their safety and would unlikely make the required reports, 26 thereby thwarting the public policy of encouraging the 27 resolution of allegations of interference with custody while 28 also protecting individuals from harm. The public-records 29 exemption, therefore, principally protects the safety of 30 individuals, but also promotes the effective and efficient
31 administration of the interference-with-custody statute.

1           Section 3. This act shall take effect October 1, 2006,
2 if Senate Bill ____, or similar legislation amending section
3 787.03, Florida Statutes, is adopted in the same legislative 4 session, or an extension thereof, and becomes law.

6                   STATEMENT OF SUBSTANTIAL CHANGES CONTAINED IN 7                                   COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR 8   SB 710

9 This committee substitute incorporates technical amendments
10 from the Committee on Judiciary.

11 The committee substitute also incorporates an amendment from 12 the Committee on Judiciary that eliminates a process for 13 release of the exempt information upon a determination by the 14 sheriff or state attorney that the investigation is complete
15 and the release of the information would not harm the person,
16 the minor, or the incompetent person.

17 The committee substitute also permits the sharing of 18 confidential and exempt information in the furtherance of 19 another agency's duties.
