The Committee on Domestic Security (Wise) recommended the following amendment to substitute amendment (831804):

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 4, between lines 9 and 10,

insert:

(6) Multistory affordable residential dwellings for persons age 62 and older which are financed or insured by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development must make every effort to obtain grant funding from the Federal Government or the Florida Housing Finance Corporation to comply with this section. If an owner of such a residential dwelling cannot comply, the owner must develop a plan with the local emergency management director to ensure that residents are evacuated to a place of safety in the event of a power outage resulting from a natural or manmade disaster or other emergency situation that disrupts the normal supply of electricity for an extended period of time. A place of safety may include, but is not limited to, relocation to an alternative site within the building or evacuation to a local
