SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Current law does not permit a state building, road, bridge, park, recreation complex, or similar facility to be named after a living person unless the name designation is approved by law. Pursuant to this requirement, if a university wishes to name a particular building or facility after a living person, the designation must be approved by the Legislature.

The bill designates the new alumni center at Florida Atlantic University as the "Marleen and Harold Forkas Alumni Center" and directs Florida Atlantic University to erect suitable markers to reflect this designation.

Section 267.062, F.S. provides that no state building, road, bridge, park, recreational complex, or similar facility can be named after a living person unless approved by law. Therefore, if a university wishes to name a particular building or facility after a living person, the designation must be approved by the Legislature.

A section-by-section analysis of the bill follows. The biographical information was provided by Florida Atlantic University.

Section 1: The bill designates the new alumni center at Florida Atlantic University as the "Marleen and Harold Forkas Alumni Center" and directs Florida Atlantic University to erect suitable markers.

Marleen Forkas was the first woman to graduate from the Fashion Institute of Technology's Management Engineering Division. She went on to build a 40-year career as a designer and manufacturer for leading fashion houses.

Harold Forkas began his career working in the office supply business before moving on to sales and management for the Coca-Cola Company. He later had the opportunity to explore entrepreneurship as a Midas Muffler franchisee; by 1988, he owned eight Midas Muffler dealerships.

Marleen and Harold Forkas have a strong philanthropic background. They are involved in several charitable organizations including the Boca Raton Community Hospital Foundation and the Boca Raton Museum of Art. Their involvement with Florida Atlantic University began in 1997 when the couple began attending performances at Florida Atlantic University's University Center. They became members of the University's Inner Circle of Football Founders, and were behind the university's efforts to establish a football team.

More recently, the couple has turned their philanthropic interests to the efforts of the Florida Atlantic University National Alumni Association, donating $1 million for the construction of a permanent facility to house the association.
