HB 1127 2007

A bill to be entitled

An act relating to requirements for Medicaid eligibility; amending s. 409.903, F.S.; providing that low-income families that have children are eligible for Medicaid if the family's countable income does not exceed 35 percent of the federal poverty level and resource standards do not exceed the applicable standards for Aid to Families with Dependent Children; amending s. 445.029, F.S.; extending the time during which a family that has lost temporary cash assistance due to earnings may remain eligible for Medicaid without reapplication if private insurance is unavailable or unaffordable; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 409.903, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

409.903 Mandatory payments for eligible persons.--The agency shall make payments for medical assistance and related services on behalf of the following persons who the department, or the Social Security Administration by contract with the Department of Children and Family Services, determines to be eligible, subject to the income, assets, and categorical eligibility tests set forth in federal and state law. Payment on behalf of these Medicaid eligible persons is subject to the availability of moneys and any limitations established by the General Appropriations Act or chapter 216.

HB 1127 2007

(1) Low-income families with children are eligible for Medicaid provided they meet the following requirements:

- (c) The family's countable income does and resources do not exceed 35 percent of the federal poverty level and resource standards do not exceed the applicable Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) income and resource standards under the AFDC state plan in effect in July 2006 1996, except as amended in the Medicaid state plan to conform as closely as possible to the requirements of the welfare transition program, to the extent permitted by federal law.
- Section 2. Subsection (1) of section 445.029, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

445.029 Transitional medical benefits.--

- (1) A family that loses its temporary cash assistance due to earnings shall remain eligible for Medicaid without reapplication during the immediately succeeding 24-month 12-month period if private medical insurance is unavailable from the employer or is unaffordable.
- (a) The family shall be denied Medicaid during the $\underline{24-}$ month $\underline{12}$ month period for any month in which the family does not include a dependent child.
- (b) The family shall be denied Medicaid if, during the final second 6 months of the 24-month 12 month period, the family's average gross monthly earnings during the preceding month exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level.
 - Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.