16 and insert: welfare. It is necessary, therefore, to provide 17 affordable property insurance to applicants who are in good
18 faith entitled to procure insurance through the voluntary 19 market but are unable to do so. The Legislature intends by 20 this subsection that property insurance be provided and that 21 it continues to be provided, as long as necessary, through 22 Citizens Property Insurance Corporation, a government entity
23 that is an integral part of the state and that is not a 24 private insurance company. To that end, the corporation shall 25 strive to increase the availability and affordability of 26 property insurance in this state while achieving ~~an entity~~
27 ~~organized to achieve~~ efficiencies and economies, and while 28 providing service
