Senator Storms moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 2, between lines 8 and 9, insert:

Section 2. Cybercrime study.--

(1) The Cybercrime Unit of the Office of the Attorney General, in consultation with the Department of Law Enforcement, shall internally or by creating a volunteer task force:

(a) Investigate the ways in which sexually violent predators and other persons who commit sexually violent or financial crimes use the Internet to meet or otherwise establish contact with potential victims.

(b) Make recommendations for legislation authorizing probation officers and law enforcement to monitor Internet usage by persons who have committed financial or sexually violent crimes, as well as all felons.

(c) Investigate whether online dating services are identifying sexually violent predators and other persons who

1 have committed sexually violent or financial crimes and 2 allowing the use of their services with or without 3 notification to their members.

4 (e) Determine the accuracy of reports from commercial 5 data aggregators that collect and disseminate criminal history 6 information in terms of identifying felons and other persons 7 who have committed sexually violent or financial crimes, 8 including how often such data is updated.

9 (2) The Cybercrime Unit shall submit a report 10 addressing these issues and making recommendations to the 11 President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of 12 Representatives by December 31, 2007.
