Amendment No.

17 (3) Community colleges and state universities shall post
18 on their websites, as early as is feasible, but not less than 30 19 days prior to the first day of class for each term, a list of 20 each textbook required for each course offered at the 21 institution during the upcoming term. The posted list shall 22 include the International Standard Book Number (ISBN) for each 23 textbook along with other relevant information necessary to 24 identify the specific textbook or textbooks required for each
25 course. The State Board of Education and the Board of Governors
26 shall include in the policies, procedures, and guidelines
27 adopted under subsection (4) certain limited exceptions to this 28 notification requirement for classes added after the 29 notification deadline.

30 (4) By March 1, 2008, the State Board of Education and the 31 Board of Governors each shall adopt policies, procedures, and 32 guidelines for implementation by community colleges and state 33 universities, respectively, that further efforts to minimize the 34 cost of textbooks for students attending such institutions while 35 maintaining the quality of education and academic freedom. The 36 policies, procedures, and guidelines shall provide for the 37 following:

38 (a) That textbook adoptions are made with sufficient lead 39 time to bookstores so as to confirm availability of the 40 requested materials and, where possible, ensure maximum 41 availability of used books.

42 (b) That, in the textbook adoption process, the intent to 43 use all items ordered, particularly each individual item sold as 44 part of a bundled package, is confirmed by the course instructor

45 or the academic department offering the course before the 46 adoption is finalized.

47 (c) That a course instructor or the academic department
48 offering the course determines, before a textbook is adopted, 49 the extent to which a new edition differs significantly and 50 substantively from earlier versions.

51 (d) That required textbooks be made available to students
52 unable to afford the cost.

53 Section 2. (1) The Office of Program Policy Analysis and 54 Government Accountability shall conduct a study of the rising 55 costs of college textbooks and textbook purchasing practices of 56 public postsecondary educational institutions in the state. When 57 conducting the study, the Office of Program Policy Analysis and 58 Government Accountability shall:
