Amendment No.

17 as provided under this chapter, may assess and impose on every 18 insurance company, corporation, or other insurer now engaged in 19 or carrying on, or who shall hereinafter engage in or carry on, 20 the business of property insurance as shown by the records of 21 the Office of Insurance Regulation of the Financial Services
22 Commission an excise tax in addition to any lawful license or 23 excise tax now levied by each of the municipalities or special
24 fire control districts, respectively, amounting to 1.85 percent
25 of the gross amount of receipts of premiums from policyholders
26 on all premiums collected on property insurance policies
27 covering property within the corporate limits of such 28 municipalities or within the legally defined boundaries of 29 special fire control districts, respectively. Whenever the 30 boundaries of a special fire control district that has lawfully
31 established a firefighters' pension trust fund encompass a 32 portion of the corporate territory of a municipality that has 33 also lawfully established a firefighters' pension trust fund,
34 that portion of the tax receipts attributable to insurance
35 policies covering property situated both within the municipality
36 and the special fire control district shall be given to the fire 37 service provider. For the purpose of this section, the 38 boundaries of a special fire control district shall be deemed to 39 include an area that has been annexed until the completion of 40 the 4-year period provided for in s. 171.093(4), or other
41 agreed-upon extension, or the termination of an interlocal
42 agreement executed pursuant to s. 171.093(3). The agent shall 43 identify the fire service provider on the property owner's 44 application for insurance. Remaining revenues collected pursuant

Amendment No.

45 | to this chapter shall be distributed to the municipality or
46 | special fire control district according to the location of the 47 | insured property.

48 |
49 | This section also applies to any municipality consisting of a
50 | single consolidated government which is made up of a former
51 | county and one or more municipalities, consolidated pursuant to
52 | the authority in s. 3 or s. 6(e), Art. VIII of the State
53 | Constitution, and to property insurance policies covering
54 | property within the boundaries of the consolidated government,
55 | regardless of whether the properties are located within one or
56 | more separately incorporated areas within the consolidated
57 | government, provided the properties are being provided fire
58 | protection services by the consolidated government. This section
59 | also applies to any municipality, as provided in s.
60 | 175.041(3)(c), which has entered into an interlocal agreement to
61 | receive fire protection services from another municipality
62 | participating under this chapter. The excise tax may be levied
63 | on all premiums collected on property insurance policies
64 | covering property located within the corporate limits of the
65 | municipality receiving the fire protection services, but will be
66 | available for distribution to the municipality providing the
67 | fire protection services.
