SUMMARY ANALYSIS

A person who intentionally touches in a lewd or lascivious manner the breasts, genitals, genital area, or buttocks, or the clothing covering them, of a person less than 16 years of age, or forces or entices a person under 16 years of age to so touch the perpetrator, commits the offense of lewd or lascivious molestation. If an offender is 18 years of age or older and the victim is under the age of 12, the offense of lewd or lascivious molestation is a life felony. As a result of the Jessica Lunsford Act, this offense is punishable by a term of imprisonment for life or by a sentence of not less than 25 years' imprisonment followed by probation or community control for the remainder of the offender's natural life. The offender must be electronically monitored during this term of probation or community control.

HB 41 would require the imposition of a life sentence for a second or subsequent conviction for the offense of lewd or lascivious molestation where the victim is under the age of 12 and the offender is 18 or older. The punishment for a first conviction would remain the same as provided in current law – a minimum sentence of 25 years' imprisonment followed by lifetime supervision with electronic monitoring and a maximum sentence of life in prison.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Promote personal responsibility/provide limited government: The bill increases the sanction for a criminal offense.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

HB 41 would require the imposition of a life sentence for a second or subsequent conviction for the offense of lewd or lascivious molestation where the victim is under the age of 12 and the offender is 18 or older. The punishment for a first conviction for this offense would remain the same as provided in current law – a minimum sentence of 25 years' imprisonment followed by lifetime supervision with electronic monitoring and a maximum sentence of life in prison.

² S. 948.012(4), F.S. In electronically monitoring this type of offender, the Department of Corrections is required to "use a system that actively monitors and identifies the offender's location and timely reports or records the offender's presence near or within a crime scene or in a prohibited area or the offender's departure from specified geographic limitations". S. 948.11(6), F.S.

first 10 to 20 years after passage. Since current law requires lengthy prison sentences for these offenses, the short-term impact is likely to be negligible.

В.	FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:
	1. Revenues: None.
	2. Expenditures: None.
C.	DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR: None.
D.	FISCAL COMMENTS: See above.
	III. COMMENTS
A.	CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:
	 Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision: The bill appears to be exempt from the requirements of Article VII, Section 18 of the Florida Constitution because it is a criminal law.
	2. Other: None.
В.	RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY: None.
C.	DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS: None.
