The Committee on Community Affairs (Haridopolos) recommended
the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Section 195.052, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

195.052 Research and tabulation of data.--The department shall conduct constant research and maintain accurate tabulations of data and conditions existing as to ad valorem taxation, shall annually publish such data as may be appropriate to facilitate fiscal policymaking, and shall annually make such recommendations to the Legislature as are necessary to ensure that property is valued according to its just value and is equitably taxed throughout the state. Such data shall include the annual percentage increase in total nonvoted ad valorem taxes levied by each municipality and county, and shall include information on the distribution of ad valorem taxes levied among the various classifications of 1 property, including homestead, nonhomestead residential, new 2 construction, commercial, and industrial properties. Such data 3 shall include the previous year's adopted millage rate, the 4 current year's millage rate, and the current increase in taxes 5 levied above the rolled-back rate. Such data shall, at a 6 minimum, be published on the department's website and on the 7 websites of all property appraisers of this state, if 8 available. Publication shall occur not later than 90 ~~60~~ days 9 after receipt of extended rolls for all counties pursuant to 10 s. 193.122(7).

11 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2007, 12 and shall apply to the January 1, 2008 tax roll and to all tax 13 rolls thereafter.
