

HR 9055

2007

House Resolution

A resolution commending the Florida Psychological Association on its 60th anniversary and recognizing March 27, 2007, as "Florida Psychology Day" in Florida.

WHEREAS, for the past 60 years, the Florida Psychological Association has worked to advance psychology as both a science and a profession and as a means of promoting public health and welfare, and

WHEREAS, the Florida Psychological Association has helped increase the usefulness of psychologists to the public through its establishment and promotion of high standards of ethics, conduct, education, and achievement for the profession, and

WHEREAS, the Florida Psychological Association continuously strives to increase public awareness of psychological conditions and their treatments through public meetings, professional contacts, and reports, papers, and other publications, and

WHEREAS, the Florida Psychological Association continues to promote the advancement of scientific interest and inquiry in the field of psychology and the application of promising research findings to help alleviate human suffering and pain,
NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That the House of Representatives commend Florida's psychologists and the Florida Psychological Association for

HR 9055

2007

29 | their contributions to the field of psychology in this state and
30 | recognizes March 27, 2007, as "Florida Psychology Day" in
31 | Florida.