A bill to be entitled

An act relating to truck tractor drivers;
requiring such drivers to complete a 6-year training course, including 2 years of driving experience; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. In order to operate a truck tractor, as defined in s. 316.003, Florida Statutes, on the roads, streets, or highways of this state, a person must have completed a 6-year training course that includes 4 years of training before being allowed to drive on public roadways, followed by 2 years of driving experience on such roadways while accompanied by a person in the truck tractor who is licensed to operate the vehicle.

Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2007.

SENATE SUMMARY

Requires truck tractor drivers to complete a 6-year training program, including 2 years of driving experience.
