Senate Amendment

On page 12, line 3, through page 13, line 21, delete those lines and insert:

(b) A millage rate higher than the maximum millage rate that may be levied under paragraph (a) may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the governing body of the municipality or special district dependent thereto.

(4) The maximum millage rate that an independent special district may levy by a majority vote of the governing body for the 2007-2008 fiscal year is 97 percent of the rolled-back rate, as calculated under s. 200.065. A millage rate higher than the maximum millage rate specified in this subsection may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the governing body of the independent special district.

(5) In the 2008-2009 fiscal year, a county, municipal service taxing units of that county, and special districts

1 dependent to that county; a municipality and special districts
2 dependent to that municipality; and an independent special 3 district may levy a maximum millage determined as follows:

4 (a) The maximum millage rate that may be levied shall 5 be the rolled-back rate calculated pursuant to s. 200.065 and 6 adjusted for growth in per capita Florida personal income, 7 except that ad valorem tax revenue levied in the 2007-2008 8 fiscal year shall be reduced by any tax revenue resulting from 9 a millage rate approved by a super majority vote of the 10 governing board of the taxing authority in excess of the 11 maximum rate that could have been levied by a majority vote as 12 provided in this section.

13 (b) A rate in excess of the millage rate allowed in 14 paragraph (a) may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the 15 governing body.
