(b) Pursuant to general law tangible personal property held for sale as stock in trade and livestock may be valued for taxation at a specified percentage of its value, may be classified for tax purposes, or may be exempted from taxation.

(c) All persons entitled to a homestead exemption under Section 6 of this Article shall have their homestead

1 assessed at just value as of January 1 of the year following
2 the effective date of this amendment. This assessment shall 3 change only as provided herein.

4 (1) Assessments subject to this provision shall be 5 changed annually on January 1st of each year; but those 6 changes in assessments shall not exceed the lower of the 7 following:

8 a. Three percent (3%) of the assessment for the prior 9 year.

10 b. The percent change in the Consumer Price Index for 11 all urban consumers, U.S. City Average, all items 1967=100, or 12 successor reports for the preceding calendar year as initially 13 reported by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of 14 Labor Statistics.

15 (2) No assessment shall exceed just value.

16 (3) After any change of ownership, as provided by 17 general law, homestead property shall be assessed at just 18 value as of January 1 of the following year. Thereafter, the 19 homestead shall be assessed as provided herein.

20 (4) New homestead property shall be assessed at just 21 value as of January 1st of the year following the 22 establishment of the homestead. That assessment shall only 23 change as provided herein.

24 (5) Changes, additions, reductions, or improvements to 25 homestead property shall be assessed as provided for by 26 general law; provided, however, after the adjustment for any 27 change, addition, reduction, or improvement, the property
28 shall be assessed as provided herein.

29 (6) In the event of a termination of homestead status,
30 the property shall be assessed as provided by general law.

31

1 (7) The provisions of this amendment are severable.
2 If any of the provisions of this amendment shall be held 3 unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the 4 decision of such court shall not affect or impair any 5 remaining provisions of this amendment.

6 (d) The legislature may, by general law, for 7 assessment purposes and subject to the provisions of this 8 subsection, allow counties and municipalities to authorize by 9 ordinance that historic property may be assessed solely on the 10 basis of character or use. Such character or use assessment
11 shall apply only to the jurisdiction adopting the ordinance.
12 The requirements for eligible properties must be specified by 13 general law.

14 (e) A county may, in the manner prescribed by general 15 law, provide for a reduction in the assessed value of

18 construction or reconstruction of the property for the purpose
19 of providing living quarters for one or more natural or 20 adoptive grandparents or parents of the owner of the property
21 or of the owner's spouse if at least one of the grandparents
22 or parents for whom the living quarters are provided is 62

28 property as improved.

29 (f) Just valuation of property shall be determined
30 based upon its present use. Speculative values based upon a
