SENATOR AMENDMENT

Florida Senate - 2008 Bill No. CS for CS for SB 1012

18	(19) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section,
19	all claims for underpayment from a provider licensed under
20	chapter 458, chapter 459, chapter 460, chapter 461, or chapter
21	466 must be submitted to the insurer within 12 months after the
22	health insurer's payment of the claim. A claim for underpayment
23	may not be permitted beyond 12 months after the health insurer's
24	payment of a claim.
25	Section 4. Section 627.64731, Florida Statutes, is created
26	to read:
27	627.64731 Leasing, renting, or granting access to a
28	participating provider
29	(1) As used in this section, the term:
30	(a) "Contracting entity" means any person or entity that is
31	engaged in the act of contracting with participating providers
32	and has a direct contract with a participating provider for the 33	delivery of health care services or the selling or assigning of
34	physicians or physician panels to other health care entities.
35	(b) "Participating provider" means a physician licensed
36	under chapter 458, chapter 459, chapter 460, chapter 461, or
37	chapter 466, or a physician group practice that has a health care
38	contract with a contracting entity and is entitled to
39	reimbursement for health care services rendered to an enrollee
40	under the health care contract and includes both preferred
41	providers as defined in s. 627.6471 and exclusive providers as
42	defined in s. 627.6472.
43	(2) A contracting entity may not sell, lease, rent, or
44	otherwise grant access to the health care services of a
45	participating provider under a health care contract unless
46	expressly authorized by the health care contract. The health care
47	contract must specifically provide that it applies to network

48 rental arrangements and state that one purpose of the contract is 49 selling, renting, or giving the contracting entity rights to the 50 services of the participating provider, including other preferred provider organizations. At the time a health care contract is 51 52 entered into with a participating provider, the contracting 53 entity shall, to the extent possible, identify any third party to 54 which the contracting entity has granted access to the health care services of the participating provider. The contracting 55 entity may sell, lease, rent, or otherwise grant access to the 56 57 participating provider's services only to a third party that is: 58 (a) A payer or a third-party administrator or other entity 59 responsible for administering claims on behalf of the payer; 60 (b) A preferred provider organization or preferred provider network that receives access to the participating provider's 61 62 services pursuant to an arrangement with the preferred provider organization or preferred provider network in a contract with the 63 64 participating provider and that is required to comply with all of the terms, conditions, and affirmative obligations to which the 65 66 originally contracted primary participating provider network is 67 bound under its contract with the participating provider, including, but not limited to, obligations concerning patient 68 69 steerage and the timeliness and manner of reimbursement; or 70 (c) An entity that is engaged in the business of providing electronic claims transport between the contracting entity and 71 72 the payer or third-party administrator and that complies with all 73 of the applicable terms, conditions, and affirmative obligations of the contracting entity's contract with the participating 74 75 provider including, but not limited to, obligations concerning 76 patient steerage and the timeliness and manner of reimbursement.

1
77	(3) Upon a request by a participating provider, a
78	contracting entity must provide the identity of any third party
79	that has been granted access to the health care services of the
80	participating provider.
81	(4) A contracting entity that leases, rents, or otherwise
82	grants access to the health care services of a participating
83	provider must maintain an Internet website or a toll-free
84	telephone number through which the provider may obtain a listing,
85	updated at least every 90 days, of the third parties that have
86	been granted access to the provider's health care services.
87	(5) A contracting entity that leases, rents, or otherwise
88	grants access to a participating provider's health care services
89	must ensure that an explanation of benefits or remittance advice
90	furnished to the participating provider that delivers health care
91	services under the health care contract identifies the
92	contractual source of any applicable discount.
93	(6) Subject to applicable continuity-of-care laws, the
94	right of a third party to exercise the rights and
95	responsibilities of a contracting entity under a health care
96	contract terminates on the day following the termination of the
97	participating provider's contract with the contracting entity.
98	(7) The provisions of this section do not apply if the
99	third party that is granted access to a participating provider's
100	health care services under a health care contract is:
101	(a) An employer or other entity providing coverage for
102	health care services to the employer's employees or the entity's
103	members and the employer or entity has a contract with the 104	contracting entity or the contracting entity's affiliate for the
105	administration or processing of claims for payment or services
106	provided under the health care contract;

107	(b) An entity providing administrative services to, or
108	receiving administrative services from, the contracting entity or
109	the contracting entity's affiliate or subsidiary; or
110	(c) An affiliate or a subsidiary of a contracting entity,
111	or other entity if operating under the same brand licensee
112	program as the contracting entity.
113	(8) A health care contract may provide for arbitration of
114	disputes arising under this section.
115	(9) A contracting entity shall ensure that all third
116	parties to which the contracting entity has sold, rented,
117	assigned, or otherwise given access to the participating
118	provider's discounted rate comply with the physician contract,
119	including all requirements to encourage access to the 120	participating provider, and pay the provider pursuant to the
121	rates of payment and methodology set forth in that contract,
122	unless otherwise agreed to by a participating provider.
123	(10) A contracting entity is deemed in compliance with this
124	section when the insured's identification card provides
125	information, written or electronically, which identifies the
126	preferred provider network or networks to be used to reimburse
127	the provider for covered services.
128	(11) This section does not apply to a contract between a
129	contracting entity and a discount medical plan organization
130	licensed or exempt under part II of chapter 636.
131	Section 5. Subsections (11), (12), and (13) of section
132	627.662, Florida Statutes, are renumbered as subsections (12),
133	(13), and (14), respectively, and a new subsection (11) is added
134	to that section, to read:

4/23/2008 2:43:00 PM

135	627.662 Other provisions applicableThe following
136	provisions apply to group health insurance, blanket health
137	insurance, and franchise health insurance:
138	(11) Section 627.64731, relating to leasing, renting, or
139	granting access to a participating provider.
140	Section 6. Paragraph (v) of subsection (3) of section
141	627.6699, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
142	627.6699 Employee Health Care Access Act
143	(3) DEFINITIONSAs used in this section, the term:
144	(v) "Small employer" means, in connection with a health
145	benefit plan with respect to a calendar year and a plan year, any
146	person, sole proprietor, self-employed individual, independent
147	contractor, firm, corporation, partnership, or association that
148	is actively engaged in business, has its principal place of 149	business in this state, employed an average of at least 1 but not 150	more than 50 eligible employees on business days during the 151	preceding calendar year the majority of whom were employed in 152	this state, and employs at least 1 employee on the first day of 153	the plan year, and is not formed primarily for purposes of
154	purchasing insurance. In determining the number of eligible
155	employees, companies that are an affiliated group as defined in 156	s. 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, are
157	considered a single employer. For purposes of this section, a
158	sole proprietor, an independent contractor, or a self-employed
159	individual is considered a small employer only if all of the 160	conditions and criteria established in this section are met.
161	Section 7. Subsection (41) is added to section 641.31,
162	Florida Statutes, to read:
163	641.31 Health maintenance contracts

4-08292-08

164	(41) Whenever, in any health maintenance organization claim
165	form, a subscriber specifically authorizes payment of benefits
166	directly to any contracted hospital, ambulance provider,
167	physician, or dentist, the health maintenance organization shall
168	make such payment to the designated provider of such services if
169	any benefits are due to the subscriber under the terms of the
170	agreement between the subscriber and the health maintenance
171	organization. The health maintenance organization contract may
172	not prohibit, and claims forms must provide an option for, the
173	payment of benefits directly to a licensed hospital, ambulance
174	provider, physician, or dentist for covered services provided,
175	for services provided pursuant to s. 395.1041, and for ambulance
176	transport and treatment provided pursuant to part III of chapter
177	401. The attestation of assignment of benefits may be in written
178	or electronic form. Payment to the provider from the health
179	maintenance organization may not be more than the amount that the 180	insurer would otherwise have paid without the assignment. This 181	subsection does not affect the applicability of ss. 641.3154 and
182	641.513 with respect to services provided and payment for such
183	services provided pursuant to the subsection.
184	Section 8. Subsections (16) and (17) are added to section
185	641.3155, Florida Statutes, to read:
186	641.3155 Prompt payment of claims
187	(16) Notwithstanding the 30-month period provided in
188	subsection (5), all claims for overpayment submitted to a
189	provider licensed under chapter 458, chapter 459, chapter 460,
190	chapter 461, or chapter 466 must be submitted to the provider
191	within 12 months after the health maintenance organization's
192	payment of the claim. A claim for overpayment may not be
193	permitted beyond 12 months after the health maintenance
