1 Representative Needelman offered the following:

2
3 Amendment (with directory and title amendments)

4 Remove lines 15-22 and insert:

5 (10) A violation of the provisions of this section shall 6 not constitute negligence per se, nor shall such violation be 7 used as prima facie evidence of negligence or be considered in 8 mitigation of damages, but such violation may be considered as 9 evidence of comparative negligence, in any civil action. An 10 insurance company shall incorporate into a policy for motor 11 vehicle insurance an affidavit stating that a policyholder who 12 is involved in an accident while not wearing his or her seat
13 belt will lose medical benefits or personal injury protection
14 coverage for the percentage at which such failure to wear a seat
15 belt contributed to the injuries sustained.
