Amendment No.

17 local government attorney, or candidate would be influenced 18 thereby.

19 (b) No elected or appointed member of a local government
20 council or advisory committee acting in a quasi-judicial matter,
21 including, but not limited to, code enforcement, zoning, or land 22 use decisions, shall, directly or indirectly, solicit any 23 contribution on behalf of a candidate from an individual who is 24 participating in a matter pending before the council or advisory 25 committee. For purposes of this paragraph, "matter" means 26 any quasi-judicial or other proceeding, application, request for 27 a ruling or other determination, or other particular action
28 involving a specific party or parties. This prohibition shall 29 not apply to the governing body of a district, county, or 30 municipality.
